Camp Fire Activities Close for Season

Camp Fire Leaders association of Mill City closed the year's activity by their meeting Thursday, May 29, in the Charles Harman home in Mill City.

Mrs. S. W. Haron from Salem was a guest and plans were made for fall activities. Those attending were Mrs. Horn, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Roy Walker, Mrs. L. Herman, Mrs. Bair, Mrs. Arey Podrabsky, Mrs. Dyhrman, Mrs. C. Harman, Mrs. C. Rue, and Mrs. L. Pinkston.

Mrs. Dyhrman served refreshments to the group. Mrs. Lee Pinkston, Mrs. C. V. Rue and Mrs. C. Harman attended the Willamette Area Leaders' cookout at Camp Kelowan, Tuesday, May 27. There were 58 leaders and council members present.

Those present report everyone enjoyed the wonderful food, the nature-work throughout the camp and educational demonstrations.

Mrs. Court Rue had a wiener roast May 29 for her group. Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Roy Walker had a party May 31 for their group, as did also Mrs. Arey Podrabsky, and Mrs. Jess Lee.

Mrs. Bair presented each girl in that group with a Blue Bird bracelet instead of a party, because so many of the group were moving.

Ta Wan Ten Ya group gave a party, May 19, for their guardian, Mrs. Chas. Harman. Each girl presented her with a gift. The group enjoyed a wiener roast at Carol Veness' home, May 26.

The Woto-eto group had a surprise party for their guardians Mrs. Lee Pinkston and Mrs. Harry Dyhrman.

Mrs. Edna Duval Hosts Lucky Twelve Club

Mrs. Edna Duval, long-time devotee of the art of pinochle play, tossed her winning rights aside for the gentle art of serving as hostess for her companions of the Gates Lucky Twelve Pinochle club.

Mrs. Duval tantalized her guests with ribbon sandwich loaf refreshments. Mrs. Thelma Otto blossomed card-wise into the highest bracket; tagging far behind in low was Mrs. Inez Teal. Mrs. Marcie Peterson retained her luck handsomely with a winner pinochle.

Mikkelsens Named To Honorary Societies

Thirty freshmen women have been honored by election to Kwama, sophomore women's service organization. The first-year coeds were tapped for membership at the annual Mortar Board ball Saturday night. High scholarship and campus activities were standards of election.

Among those named to the honorary is Sue E. Mikkelsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald M. Mikkelsen, Mill City. Miss Mikkelsen is a freshman in liberal arts.

William J. Mikkelsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Mikkelsen, was one of twenty-four students initiated last week into Pi Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary. Mikkelsen is a junior in liberal arts.

Fancy sandwiches, cake and ice tea were served by the girls. Both women were presented with floral tributes and leader pins.
