Rebekah Convention At Stayton Tuesday

The annual Rebekah convention of Dist. No. 7 was at Stayton this year on June 10 with representatives from each lodge of the district, Mill City, Lyons, Scio, Turner, Jefferson and Stayton attending.

Highlight of the convention was the list of achievements accomplished by each lodge during the past year.

Stayton lodge who sponsored a youth pilgrimage to the United Nations, gave a cake walk to finance it. They also participated in Memorial services at the state assembly in Salem.

Mill City announced the initiation of 10 new members and presentation of the 55-year veteran jewel to Martha Bowes.

Jefferson was justly proud of having won $50 first prize, on a float entered at the state assembly at Salem.

Scio lodge told of participating in community affairs by donating to a family whose home was lost by fire.

Turner members reported that their lodge hall, which burned down two years ago, has been rebuilt, refurnished, and is almost complete.

Lyons boasted of nine new members and donations to hospital fund, Red Cross, March of Dimes, and support of the Youth Pilgrimage.

Assembly president Marcelle Ware of Stayton, presided over the meeting.

Honor Students at Detroit HS

MARY GORDON

JOHN DAVIS

Commencement exercises were held at 8 p.m. Friday for the graduating class at Detroit high school. The ceremonies were in the grade school gym. Dr. Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration at the University of Oregon, addressed the seven seniors—the last to study in the present high school building. It will be razed soon to make way for Detroit dam reservoir.

Mary Helen Jones is valedictorian and John Edwin Davis is salutatorian. Both have been awarded scholarships and plan to study at Oregon College of Education. Others in the graduating class are James White, who plans to study journalism at the University of Oregon; Ercell Ingram, who also plans to attend college; Joyce Garbutt, who is married, Robert Layman, who plans to join the Air Force; and William Palmer, who has secured employment in Portland.

Detroit high school also serves Idanha where baccalaureate services were held Sunday at the Community church. High school classes this fall will be conducted in the same building the grade school occupies.
