DETROIT AND IDANHA

By MRS. S. T. MOORE
Visiting at the home of Mrs. L. L. Ryneerson are her mother, Mrs. Alvin McNamee of Portland, and her aunt, Mrs. Lovitt from Nebraska.

Visitors at the Earl Parker home last week were Mr. and Mrs. Fred White of Portland and Mrs. Arthur White and Edward Howard from Pasadena. The group enjoyed picnicking at Big Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Waters, parents of Mrs. Raymond Sophy, are expected to return from Bremerton this weekend. They are moving their household goods to Detroit and plan to establish an apartment in the quonset building adjoining the Detroit Market.

Sam Wiser, formerly of Detroit, visited town this week and made a tour of both old and new town sites. He was impressed by the many changes since his last visit. Mr. Wiser has been hospitalized for several months in Salem because of a broken leg, but reports satisfactory progress at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker will spend the weekend with the Fred Whites in Portland and plan to visit on their return trip with former Detroit residents, Mf. and Mrs. Goodman of Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. White with their daughter Marlene and Mr. White's mother, Mrs. Annie White are on a two-week's vacation trip in California. They plan to visit James White in Eugene, then drive to Oroville, Calif., where they will visit Mr. White's sister and family, the C. A. Boultons. At Burbank, Calif., they will visit Mr. White's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roy White. The group will spend a week in Satna Ana, Calif., where they will visit Mildred and Eldon White and their children.

Guests at the Fritz Morrison home last weekend were Dena Jones, Mrs. Morrison's sister, who is attending summer school at Oregon State college, and Wendell Jones, her brother, who is with the experiment station in
