Mrs. Joan Long Entertains Lucky Twelve Pinochlers

Mrs. Joan Long performed expertly her part as hostess for the Lucky Twelve Pinochlers by entertaining her guests with pineapple creamed dessert, served in an enticing fashion.

Marcie Peterson came up with high prize after a long dry spell, and Rose Haywood coralled the pinochle prize at the right time to take it home with her, while Jean Wilson faltered and only rescued the low prize for the day's effort.

Detroit Women's Club Plans For Future

Detroit—A program for community beautification was adopted by the Detroit Women's Civic club, at the Wednesday night meeting held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Cokenour in Idanha.

The project calls for block chairmen throughout Idanha and Detroit to stimulate interest in yard and home improvements, with the possibility of future garden or flower shows to be held.

Twelve were present for the meeting, including Mrs. Edna Mattoon, a guest, and Mrs. Letha Ott who joined the club during the evening.

Mrs. Audrey Layman was elected to the position of treasurer to replace Mrs. Zeda Rynearson who resigned.

A rummage sale was held Tuesday, August 12, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. at the White apartments. Donations were collected and sorted Monday evening by a committee of volunteers.

Standing committees appointed by Mrs. Opal White, club president, include the following chairmen: membership, Mrs. Zetta Schlador; community service, Mrs. Ella Johnson; program, Mrs. Gladys Alvin; library, Mrs. Lillie Hellwig; music, Mrs. Ruth Skidmore; publicity, Mrs. Amber Rutherford; Brownies, Mrs. Maycel Cokenour; and legislation, Mrs. Margaret Rasnick.

Following the meeting the hostess served punch, coffee, cookies and ice cream.

Flower Show Biggest Here In Many Years

The Mill City Garden club held their late summer flower show August 12 with 285 entries in the different divisions. Mrs. Ward Inglis of Stayton accompanied the lady student judges and acted as guide in the judging. The judges were Mrs. Edna Hawley, Mrs. Jean Scheel and Mrs. Bronson of Corvallis.

The judges awarded 161 ribbons and one sweepstake for each division. Of the show were awarded to Mrs. C. Dolezal, arrangement and potted begonia; Mrs. Roger Nelson beautiful gold auratum band lily and Mrs. Elmer Shaw for beautiful chartreuse color corsage. Flower lovers from Mill City Gates and Fox Valley participated to make the show a wonderful success. Questions were asked regarding show specimens, marine gardens, bi-color glads and answered by the visiting judges. Mr. Glenn Julian invited garden club visitors to visit his home to see his beautiful fuchsia collection.

Refreshments of pie, cake and coffee were sold by Mrs. Olmstead.

The flower show chairman wishes to thank all those committees, the food chairman, dish washers and the folks who brought all those arrays of gorgeous flowers and arrangements to make the show such a success. The Garden club thanks one and all—also all husbands who made trays for their garden club wives and those who picked up flowers and cakes.

Monday Is Orchid Night

Vanda Orchids, flown from Hawaii, will highlight ladies night on the Monday program. 300 of the dainty, fresh, internationally famous orchids will be presented to the first 300 feminine adult admissions to the Monday night games. This outstanding feature has been made possible through the contribution of Eddie Rada, formerly of Mill City and now representing Flowers of Hawaii, L.T.D. in Honolulu. Rada is a graduate of Mill City high school and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rada, well-known residents of Mill City.

Star Recipes

Movie star JAMES MASON says that when it comes to food, the Turks with their centuries old culture have developed a fine palate. While on location in Turkey shooting scenes for Twentieth Century Fox's "Five Fingers", Mason discovered this exclusive recipe for Shish Kebab, a delicious dish that originated in Turkey. Translated from the Turkish it means "Skewered broiled meat". The Turks, a hearty "outdoor people, usually prepare it over an open fire. Take a tip from the Turks and have Shish Kebab for your next barbecue. It's fine for indoor eating too.

SHISH KEBAB

2 lbs. leg of lamb
1 tablespoon olive oil
Juice of one lemon

Salt and pepper
1 medium onion
1 medium tomato

Bay leaves

Cut meat into one inch cubes. Mix olive oil and lemon juice and rub meat with it. Place in dish, sprinkle with salt and pepper and cover with sliced onions and tomatoes, and a few bay leaves. Leave in refrigerator four or five hours.

Arrange meat on spits alternately with tomatoes and onions and an occasional bay leaf. Broiling over charcoal is preferable, but it may also be done over an open wood fire or in oven broiler.

Green pepper and sliced eggplant can also be inserted between meat on spits.
