Erv Lind Florists To Play Colored Champs

The Erv Lind Florists women's softball aggregation former world's champions, from Portland will meet the Los Angeles Ebonettes, winners of the Los Angeles metropolitan area championship at Allen Field in Mill City on Thursday, August 28, 7:30 p.m. standard time.

The Florists will feature the pitching talents of Betty Evans Grayson, who recently returned to play for the Portland team that she carried to the national championship. Betty spent three years as the leading hurler in the Women's Professional Softball league while performing for the Chicago Queens champions.

Outfielder Pat Carson, a teammate of Betty's with the Chicago Queens and formerly of Silverton, will also be in the lineup for the Florists.

The Florists team will be concluding a long series of successful exhibition games throughout the state when they meet the Colored Ebonettes here. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Paul Smith Ready For Walking Race

Oregon's Walking Man from Mill City even has two doctors' okay on his health insofar as his try at retaining his walking record Saturday, August 30, is concerned.

Paul Smith, 68, has two men interested in his $100.00 "walking-man" trophy. Jack Barrett, 41, Oregon Teamster, and Harry G. Roisum, 43, J. G. Watts Construction company entrant will pit their walking ability against that of Smith.

Present plans are that the race will start Saturday, August 30, at the Oregon State Fair grounds. From the Fair the walkers will proceed to the new state office building in Portland and then return to Salem and one lap around the fair ground's track.

Big worry for Smith is the large amount of traffic on highway 99, he indicated today. This problem showed up when Smith made a trial run to Oswego recently.
