

Cub Pack Committee Gives Advancements

Monday, October 27 at 7:30 some 40 young Bobcats, Wolves, Bears, and Lions and Webelos will meet at the high school recreation room to receive their awards for work performed during the summer months.

The committee met at the home of Asst. Cubmaster Ken Siler to plan the October activities. Those present include the chairman, Bob Hill, Jr., den mothers, Mrs. Dub Stewart, Mrs. Ned Goodwin, Mrs. Wilbur Meinert, Mrs. Don Jenkins, and Mrs. Joe McNealy; committeemen, Don Jenkins, Dub Stewart and Charles Harman. Other members were gone 'a huntin'.

Mrs. Goodwin's den No. 4 and Mrs. McNealy's den No. 1 are to put on Halloween skits for the pack meeting which is intended to last about one hour.

Scout Executive Clark Lethin from the Albany office will be present to talk to the parents and to explain various features of the Cub Scout program.

Any boy between the ages of 8 and 11 may become a Cub Scout. First he becomes a Bobcat by making out an application and having it signed by a parent or guardian. Then he must learn and take the Cub Scout Promise, repeat and explain the Law of the Pack, explain the meaning of Webelos, show and explain the Cub Scout sign

County Teachers Meet at Detroit

Detroit—Fifty-seven teachers representing the schools of eastern Marion county gathered at Detroit school Tuesday for a dinner meeting following an excursion tour at Detroit dam.

The group considered the possibility of organizing as a branch of the OEA in the future.

Mrs. Agnes Booth, county school superintendent, was the principal speaker, explaining pending legislation of interest to educators.

M. L. Morey, principal of Stayton Union high school acted as chairman for the opening. Committees were and handclasp and give the Cub Scout Motto and Salute. These things are learned at home and in the den meetings before the Pack meeting when he becomes a Bobcat. All of these things are explained in the handbook given to the boy at his den.

After becoming a Bobcat the boy can then work for a Wolf, Bear, or Lion award depending on his age, 8, 9, or 10, respectively.

All parents are urged to plan on attending the Pack meeting October 27. All others interested are welcome. Refreshments were served by the host Asst. Cubmaster Siler and Mrs. Siler.

Remember the Cub Scout program is supported by the Community Chest.

appointed to serve in organizing the group.

O. J. White, Detroit school superintendent, expressed thanks on behalf of the teachers for the help of Harry Rutherford, resident dam engineer, in making the tour of the dam possible.

Appreciation was also expressed for the dinner served to the group by the Detroit Women's Civic club at the school cafeteria.

DETROIT

By MRS. S. T. MOORE

Mrs. Irving Steers spent several days this week in Redmond with relatives while her infant daughter, Nancy, received medical care. The baby was believed to have measles but later diagnosis indicated severe eczema.

Mrs. Starr Reed returned from Sioux City, Iowa, last week, bringing her mother, Mrs. Nettie McMillan who will make her home with the Reeds for several months.

Starr Reed left Tuesday evening to help on the forest fire on the Mt. Hood forest.

Visitors at the O. J. White home last week were Mr. White's mother, Mrs. Annie White and his sister, Mrs. Clarence Boulton, of Oroville, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Kettleon and children, Patty and Mike, were dinner guests at the S. T. Moore home Sunday evening. Mr. Kettleon is a new high school instructor and athletic coach here this year. They are former residents of Salem.

GATES

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sweet of Eugene, were guests the last of the week at the home of their niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Joaquin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Struckmeier, who operate the Gates Variety store, were Portland visitors over the weekend, guests at the home of Mrs. Struckmeier's daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stutzman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Black and two infant daughters from Middle River, Minn., arrived last week at the Bob Oliver home. Mrs. Oliver and Mr. Black are sister and brother. Mr. and Mrs. Black, pleased with Oregon's lovely fall weather, have decided to remain here for the winter and are now occupying one of the Wilson cottages on the Linn county side of the river. They report that it was already extremely cold in their home town, with 18 inches of snow on the ground and snow still coming down when they left.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Root of Ladysmith, Wis., were guests the past week at the Edwin Kadine home, visiting their sister, Mrs. Kadine, and mother, Mrs. Mattie Root who is spending the winter at her daughter's home.

Mrs. Laura Joaquin is spending a week's vacation in Roseburg at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Cornell.

The Arthur Blackburn family has returned to Gates after having resided in Stayton for the past two years.

Guests from Portland at the Harold Wilson home were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Spoelstra, the last of the week, also their daughter, Mrs. Don Carey, and son of Stayton who visited her parents while her husband was in eastern Oregon hunting.

Lester Allen was called to North Platten, Nebr., by news of the death of his mother. He left Wednesday of last week.

ON THE MOTOR CARRIER HIGHWAY TRANSPORTATION ACT

THIS IS A MEASURE TO INCREASE TAXES!

- Everything you buy is handled by trucks at some time, and increased truck taxes will increase your daily costs of living!
  - Increases apply to all motor vehicles of all sizes!
  - Taxes on large common carriers, large private carriers and large logging trucks are increased approximately 35% on mileage.
- And...
- Taxes on logging and dump trucks classified on flat fee option would be increased 50%!
