Kelly Lumber Sales

NEW RETAIL LOCATION: East City Limits on Highway 222

Phone 3215

Elect ...

By CLIFFORD P. ROWE Forest Grove, Ore.

(Editor's Note: We are with-holding publication of this week's contribution by Mr. Rowe, which is a which has caused excitement in the letter setting forth "the Case For the Marion Forks area all summer, was Republicans" because of its extreme recently shot by Scott Young, owner libelous character especially on the of Marion Forks lodge. point that the government is perme- This bear frightened women and ated with communism. Late news children in the nearby camp, Wilsoncuser, Senator McCarthy now appears the lodge basement and destroyed to be the real friend of Communism property. in America, when he was the only | Previously the huge bruin shredded defense witness for Communist Earl a tent belonging to Chris McDonald,

For What It's Worth Scott Young Bags Large Black Bear

Marion Forks - The black bear reports now show that the chief ac- ville. It was killed after it invaded Browder in his trial in March, 1951.) Art Olmstead, and "Doc". Not content with ripping the tent, it smashed the gasoline lantern and pilfered cooking supplies. Only one dish re-mained unbroken in the tent after the

Mrs. Irving Steers has as her guest

Paul Dillard of Eugene visited this

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ramsey and

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hellwig spent

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Nolan

Rasnick are Mrs. Rasnick's daughter-in-law and two children, Sherri and Pamela, from Corpus Christi, Texas. They expect to remain in Detroit for about two months while James Griffin, Mrs. Rasnick's son, is in Korea.

He sailed Tuesday on the USS Japan and will be on the assignment until

Mrs. Fannie Noble spent a few days in Detroit this week before leaving for Los Angeles, Calif., where she will join two of her sisters, one of hom will come from Illinois for the

Mrs. Noble has been in Stayton the past few weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Baldwin, where she has been caring for her

Mrs. Frank Moore and son Frankie have returned to the ranger station

after spending two months at Monu-

On her way home Mrs. Moore lost her red Irish setter, "Finnegan", and for several days his whereabouts was unknown. He was finally reported safe and returned by a Marion Forks party who had picked him up ex-

Johnny Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Chick Mason, returns from Tacoma

this weekend where he has spent two months attending a specialized clinic. His health is reported to be much

What makes

Olympia

so satisfying?

For nearly half a century Olympia has devoted its skill

in creating a light, yet satis-

Today, the third generation of the same family is dedicating this experience and its modern facilities, plus the rare brewing quality of its famous water, to produce Olympia ... America's Original Light Table Beer.

fying beer.

family reunion in Hollywood.

youngest grandson.

ment Peak lookout.

hausted on the highway.

improved.

last weekend at the coast at Rockaway Beach and at Astoria where they visited the Gustafson family, children visited relatives in Portland week at the home of his nephew and family, the Howard Deans.

former Mongold residents.

last weekend.

this week her mother, Mrs. A. H. Hanson of Seaside. They spent Tues-

"Everything for the Logger"

BASSETT'S WELDING SHOP

3-THE MILL CITY ENTERPRISE

(Continued from Page 2)

Cardwell if you want a good man to represent you is the state legislature.

JOHN T. RUSSELL, Sweet Home,

Former Editor-Publisher New Era.

Editor's Letter Box--

Phone 116

October 30, 1952

Sweet Home, Philomath

Branch Store Lyons

Salem Heavy Hauling & Equipment Co.

1405 N. Front St.

SALEM, ORE.

Salem Phones: 2-1924; Night 2-4417 Lyons Phone:

HAULING AND MOVING HEAVY MACHINERY and Mill Equipment Up To 25 Tons

Including D8 and HD14 Cats, and 34-yard shovels.

Complete Rigging Outfit, Winch Trucks, Low-bed Trailers

Adlai E. Stevenson

VI - War and Peace

Stevenson's first excursion into chance, I'd go into public life."

ne war zones took place in 1942 His considerations, however, had the war zones took place in 1942 in the form of an inspection tour. The area inspected was the entire cians had never heard of Steven-Pacific theatre and the group did not return to Washington until February 1943. On his first European tour in the summer of 1943, Stevenson headed a Foreign Economic Administration mission. He met General Fisenbower in Na met General Eisenhower in Na-ples, where the General was conducting an inspection tour. Eisenhower said, "Well, well, I heard you were Theard you were here. How's everything going?"

Stevenson said everything was going as well as could be expected. He and the General parted on friendly terms, and have not seen each other since.

and have not seen each other since. Stevenson's wartime travels, aside from his tour of the Pacific and a trip to the Carribean, included visits to Algeria, Tunis, Sichian Cluded Visits to Algeria, Tunis, Sichian Control of the Carribean of the C ily, Italy, Gibraltar, Liberia, England, France, Germany, Luxembourg, Holland and Belgium. He was no sooner back in the United States than he became involved in the United Nations Conference at San Francisco.

had a hard row to hoe. Moreover, the whole population of the U. S., hospitals were overcrowded, obsohimself, after the meetings, in Room 576 at the Fairmount, whence In three and a half years in of-familiar role of trouble-shooter.

Stevenson's next job was at the Preparatory Commission meeting in London, scheduled for the following August. He was deputy of Stettinius, who having resigned as Secretary of State after the San Francisco Conference, headed the U. S. delegation with the rank of ambassador. Due to illness, Stettinius presently returned to the U. S., leaving Stevenson in charge. As the 1947 autumn meeting of the General Assembly, to which he was an alternate delegate, drew to politics in his home state.

in large part his later decision to enter politics. "It was a public cpinion poll in which seven out of ten American parents said they lower in per capita tax collection." didn't want their boys to enter public life," says Stevenson. "Think of it! Boys could suffer and die in their cold, muddy, bloody campaign for the things we believe in braska and New Jersey.

Administrative Methods. Stevenson put through seventy-eight bills I decided then that if I ever had a machinery.

Practical Politics

"Where the hell did you dig up this guy Add-lay?" a party leader inquired sadly (of Jacob Arvey, Adlai's sponsor for the governor-ship). "Let alone not knowing him, the voters can't even pronounce his name. He'll get his ears beat back."

paign procedure. He promised no-body anything, including Colonel Arvey. -His campaign was based on the issue of corruption, as exemplified in the regime of the incumbent Dwight Green, who opposed him. When Stevenson defeated Green by 572,000 votes, while Truman was nosing out Dewey in Illinois by a mere 34,000, it was one of the most dramatic reversals of the they laughed when I sat-down at the piano variety ever recorded in the long history of U. S. politics. Stevenson was unencumbered by political obligations and brought to politics only honesty of the lay va-riety, and acted as though that were the only kind.

Performance

When Stevenson took office in 1948, he inherited a state in which: As Secretary of State and Chairman of the U. S. delegation and the Conference, Edward Stettinius were in urgent need of immediate as represented in San Francisco by the press, were upset because they could not find anyone who knew what was going on. Eventually, Stevenson was summoned in his familiar role of trouble sheeters. payrolls were padded but legiti-His first move was to arrange to attend the U. S. delegation's meet raised to meet the cost of living; ings so that he would be aware of what was going on inside them. ruption, often well-founded, had His next move was to establish undermined confidence in the gov-he dispensed information to the fice, Stevenson effected some note-correspondents.

was an alternate delegate, drew to a close Stevenson decided to enter son, 85 percent of the attendants olitics in his home state.
In considering a career in poli1950, Dr. Karl Menninger of the tics, Stevenson was behaving in famous Kansas Clinic, was invited to inspect the hospitals to see what fashion. During the war, he had improvements had been made and come upon an item in the Stars what further ones were needed, and Stripes to which he attributes Menninger pronounced the Illinois but parents didn't want their chil-dren to work for these same things. in the efficiency of governmental Copyright 1952 by Noel F. Busch Published by Farrar, Straus & Young - New York.

Gooch Logging Supply

Phone 1141

State Representative

For Linn County

Jess W.

SAVAGE

Republican

BUSINESS MAN — FARM OWNER CIVIC LEADER

Pol. Adv. Pd. for by Jess W. Savage, Albany, Ore.

Von Be KNOW THE WHOLE TRUTH

ABOUT THE TRUCK TAX BILL

FOR A PAIK EQUITABLE TRUCK TAX

BECAUSE is will require each type of vehicle to pay its proportionate share of taxes.

on private automobiles.

BECAUSE is will not change the amount of money paid by trucks...it changes the taxing method only. All charges will continue to be set by the Legislature, as in the past.

BECAUSE it will not increase registration fees and fuel taxes

BECAUSE it will not change the status of farm vehicles.

BECAUSE it will not shift road-tax burdens from one type of carrier to another.

BECAUSE it will not impair the present Oregon Highway Commission's construction program nor impede Oregon's longterm highway planning.

END THE TRUCK TAX

VOTE 330 X YES

Pd. Adv., Oregon Highway Council, Ellery Sills, Pres., 622 S. E. Grand, Portland.

"It's the Water" Light BEER

Light Refreshment Beverage of Millions of Temperate People

OLYMPIA BREWING CO., OLYMPIA, WASH., U. S. A. rade Marks Reg. U. S. Pat. Of

se Our Modern Moving Vans Next Time You Move or Ship by Freight!

Wright Truck Line

"Ship the 'WRIGHT' way" Phone 125

Stayton, Ore.