Timberwolves Trim Loggers 33-14

By RICHARD LOVEL

The Scio Loggers were clobbered in their first eleven-man football game, last Friday night, on Allen field.

Scio failed to score in the first half while Mill City tallied twice with Dick Kanoff carrying the ball on 11 and 30-yard runs. Bill Hoffman made both of the extra points.

In the third period Scio scored with a pass from Wayne Schrunk to Ed Novac. Schrunk also made the extra point. Then a 25-yard pass from Lyle Fleetwood to Dick Kanoff would have been a Timberwolf TD had the play not been called back because of a penalty on Mill City. Three plays later Fleetwood splashed 40 yards down the muddy field for a touchdown. The extra point was not made so the score at the end of the third quarter was Mill City 20, Scio 7.

In the final quarter Bill Hoffman passed to Dick Kanoff for a 33-yard touchdown play for Mill City. The conversion attempt failed. Then Fleetwood raced 62 yards to score and LeRoy Podrabsky made the extra point to make the score 33 to 7. But near the end of the game Wayne Schrunk completed a pass to Novac who ran the rest of the way to a touchdown, for the Loggers, a 70-yard play. Schrunk kicked for the extra point. The final score was Mill City 33, Scio 14.

Scio had one touchdown called back because of a penalty. Two Scio passes were intercepted, one by Bill Hoffman and another by Tom Stewart. For the Timberwolves the outstanding defensive players were: LeRoy Emerson on the line and Lyle Fleetwood in the backfield.

Lady Hunters Give Men Competition

Mehama — Although deer hunting season is over, hunting stories are still a favorite topic. Hunting may be considered a man's game, but many women play it.

One of the largest deer checked in at Mehama this year was a 4-point buck bagged by three women hunters, Mrs. Aline Wilson, Mrs. Hilma Cole, and Mrs. Jean Roberts. The deer, weighing 165 lbs. was downed with a bullet through the chest by Aline Wilson. Two more shots were fired—just to be sure he was dead—another through the chest and one in the head. Scoring male assistance the deer was dressed and carried out by the three women.

Another successful huntress was Pearl Allaway, who bagged a forked horn—the first one in 25 years. Two more Mehama women, Doris Teeters, and Violet Wagner, were successful nimrods and each bagged a buck. One of the most persistent hunters was Mrs. Hilma Cole who went every day of the season, but finally bagged her buck, a 4-point, the day before the season closed.

Persistent Hunter Uses Bicycle in Mehama Area

Mehama—A most persistent hunter this year is an unidentified man who has pedaled a bicycle from Salem to Mehama to hunt.

He arrived Monday morning with a sleeping bag and camping equipment but minus gun and license. Seems as though he'd forgotten his license when leaving Salem and enroute was relieved of his rifle when he could not produce a license.

Leaving his camp supplies at the Mehama store he pedaled back to Salem to recover his license and pick up his rifle.

He has been seen since in the Mehama area, still pedalling, but no deer as yet on his bicycle.

Shuffleboard Play Tournament Set

Friday nights will be shuffleboard nights henceforth until the end of the season. That was the decision of the North Santiam Canyon 12 participating shuffleboard sponsors in a meeting called at Jerry's Tavern in Gates, October 29.

An added attraction this year will be a $60 shuffleboard trophy which will be awarded to the winner of this season's shuffler tourney. The 12 sponsors will chip in one-twelfth of the cost of this trophy. The battling starts November 21.

In the finals there will be a sifting out until just the three highest teams will remain. There then will be a battle-royal between the second and third place teams, the winner to take on the highest pointed team. These three shuffle groups will hold the spot-light in the fight for the coveted trophy. In case of a tie three games will be played.

Each tavern acting as a shuffleboard team sponsor is entitled to a team of 16 players. The full list of players must be in the possession of the management of Jerry's tavern on or before November 1, the date of the first tournament play.

The point system in effect the night of November 21 will be one point each round and four points for total. A "pay-as-you-go" plan also will be in effect.

The GAA elected the rally squad for this year's "B" string basketball team. They are the girls who lead cheers for the preliminary games. There is one from each class: senior, Donna Nelson; junior, Virginia Timm; sophomore, JoAnn Leach; and freshman, Roberta Loucks.

Mr. Todd, the grade school principal, was a visitor at last Tuesday's Chess club meeting. Present were: Ralph Jull, Truman Jones, Phyllis Provost, Donna Nelson, LeRoy Emerson, Delsie Roten, Lloyd Ross, Diane Peterson, Donald Ellingson, Bob Sullivan, and Mr. Chaney, the advisor.

The Junior class has some deals with a picture of a timberwolf and "Mill City Timberwolves". The Juniors will also be selling pencils with the complete 1952-3 basketball schedule on them. They are ordered and are expected to arrive soon.
