Mill City Hi-Lites

By RICHARD LOVEL

The GAA Winter Prom last Saturday, December 20 was a big success. All the fellows and their girls looked swell all dressed up in suits and formals.

The Junior class is the happiest one of the school this week because their long-awaited class rings have finally shown up.

School is now out until the 5th of January, 1953. To end the year the students had a big assembly Tuesday afternoon. The juniors were in charge of the program. There was a movie comedy with Laurel and Hardy followed by two songs sung by Janet Ross and JoAnn Leach. They were accompanied by Barbara Podrabsky on the piano.

The school paper "Wolf Tales" came out last Friday. It was a special Christmas issue.

Jim Cooke was there to give a short, interesting talk about the activities of the Naval ROTC program of which he is a member.

Tom "Santa Claus" Stewart was there to bring the gifts. He had all the teachers sit on his knee to tell him what they wanted for Christmas.

Mr. LeCours read a story about why Santa uses reindeer to pull his sleigh.

Ice cream bars were served to everyone. They were purchased by the faculty.

Then to top everything off the gifts were handed out.

After school Tuesday night the varsity basketball team got beat by the alumni. The score was 79-44. The alumni that were there were: Bob Baltimore, Bob Shelton, Ollie Muise, Ernie Podrabsky, Lawrence Thornley, Jim Poole, Leo Poole, Jim Cooke, and Gary Peterson.

There will be no Hi-Lites column in next week's paper due to the holiday vacation.
