CHOKED with GAS?

THANK HEAVENS! Most attacks are just acid indigestion. When it strikes, take Bell's tablets. They contain the fastest-acting medicines known to doctors for the relief of heartburn, gas and similar distress. 25¢.

Woman's Club Holds Annual Yule Party

The annual Christmas party of the Mill City Woman's club was held last week at the home of Mrs. J. F. Potter with Mrs. D. B. Hill, Mrs. Gladys Trask and Mrs. Charles Kelly assisting the hostess.

During the business session, called to order by Mrs. M. G. Rambo, Mrs. Roger Nelson gave a report on attending the county federation meeting.

Mrs. Vernon Todd, chairman of the Camp Fire Girls committee, gave a report.

The Christmas program for the evening was in charge of Mrs. Lester Hathaway, assisted by Mrs. Noble Streeter, Mrs. Harry Mason, Mrs. R. E. Hurd and Mrs. Gladys Trask.

Singing of Christmas carols concluded the program, led by Mrs. Don Sheythe and Mrs. Lee Rose. Mrs. Delos Hoeye accompanied at the piano.

Members and guests exchanged gifts and everyone brought wrapped gifts for the state hospital.

Rebekah Lodge Holds Christmas Party

Santiam Rebekah lodge No. 166 of Mill City held their Christmas party Wednesday night following the regular business session, with Ada Plymale, noble grand, and Antonia Thomas, vice grand, in charge.

Christmas decorations in the lodge room and dining room were by Rachel Olmstead and Mel Robinson.

Wilma Stewart and Dorothy Vail presented a comic skit for entertainment and Christmas carols were led by Ruby Brisbin and Grace Hutchinson.

Members brought gifts for a gift exchange.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Julia Bassett, Hattie Cole, Daisy Geddes and Carmen Barnhardt.

Visiting the lodge during the evening was Mrs. Grace Misner of Koozie Rebekah lodge No. 64 of Koozie, Idaho.

The men in the lodge will serve refreshments for the Jan. 7 meeting.

Eddie Turnidge has gone to Los Angeles, Calif., to visit his daughter and granddaughter and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Cox and Mr. and Mrs. James Grant.

Gates Women's Club Christmas Party

The annual Christmas party and gift exchange of the Gates Women's club was held at the home of Mrs. Gwen Schaefer, Thursday evening, Dec. 18. Mrs. W. S. Hudson presided at a short business session.

A vote of thanks was extended to Joseph Bowes for the denation of his time and the use of his truck to haul a load of brick from Albany, to be used in the construction of the fire-place in the community house which the club is building.

After adjournment, carols were sung by the group with Mrs. Don Miley at the piano. Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt acted as Santa distributing gifts to the 24 members and guests

Merry Greetings

As the light of Christmas again brightens our faces, our eyes, and our hearts, we turn our thoughts to others.

May the inspiration, happiness and peace of the holiday season — our sacred heritage, be with us always.
