A KOREAN CHRISTMAS CAROL

By DARRELL T. RATHBUN

(Copied after the poem 'Twas the Night Before Christmas')

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all thru the tent
Was the odor of fuel oil (the stove pipe was bent)

The shoe packs were hung by the oil stove with care

In hopes that they'd issue each man a new pair.

The weary GIs were sacked out in their beds,

And visions of sugar-babes danced in their heads—

When up on the ridge-line there rose such a clatter.

(A Chinese machine gun had started to chatter.)

I rushed to my rifle and threw back the bolt,

The rest of my tent-mates awoke with a jolt.

Outside we could hear our platoon Sgt. Kelly,

"Come Lancey, come Clancey, come Connors and Watson,

Up Miller, up Schiller, up Baker and Dodson."

We tumbled outside in a swirl of confusion,

So cold that each man could have used a transfusion.

"Get up on the hilltop and silence that Red,

And don't come back till your sure that he's dead."

Then putting his thumb in front of his nose,

Sgt. Kelly took leave of his shivering Joes.

But we all heard him say in a voice soft and light,

"Merry Christmas to All May You Live through the Night."
