Plan Soil Conservation District Meeting

The Linn-Lane soil conservation district's annual meeting is scheduled for the Lake Creek grange hall starting at 10 a.m. on January 23, says Ben Christensen, Harrisburg, chairman of the board of supervisors.

All persons interested in soil conservation are invited to attend. A program that will appeal to all members of the family is being arranged and will be announced later, Christensen adds.

choruses, one consisting of students in the first three grades, the other from grades 4, 5 and 6 sang Christmas carols between parts of the narration, which was read by Joan Ryal.

The scenes were portrayed before a black backdrop which showed a lighted outline of Bethlehem. In front of the performers hung a sheer curtain covered with gold and silver stars, creating an illusion of distance.

Following the pageant a tap-dance was presented by Patsy Pennick, after which Santa Claus visited and gave sacks of candy to all children attending.

Grade and high school teachers were in charge of the program with Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, general chairman.

E. A. Chance, confined at Salem Memorial hospital since last Friday, was reported in "fair" condition there Thursday night.

A Christmas dance was held in the Gates high school recreation rooms Saturday evening. Arrangements were in charge of the junior and senior classes, and high school students and alumni were invited.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ryal and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brandhardt.

What makes Olympia
so popular?

Light Olympia, like the beers of Munich and Burton-on-Trent, is famous for quality . . . and largely for the same reason . . . "It's the Water."

Premium quality hops, grains and yeast are used.

Final touch of perfection is the skillful brewing gained through three generations of brewing experience.
