Detroit Women's Club Makes Plans

Detroit—Two fund raising projects are planned by the Detroit Women's Civic club as a result of the first meeting of the year.

Proposed projects to be carried out include a cooked food sale scheduled for February 14 with Mrs. Alene Kettleson chairman of the committee, and a dinner to be served to the public at Easter time under the direction of Mrs. Laraine Sophy.

Mrs. Opal White, club president, announced that the civic club has received a number of useful articles donated by the former Detroit Dam Recreation association which is now dissolved.

Mrs. Zetta Schlador enumerated the items which include a piano, dishes, cupboards, bookshelves and miscellaneous articles of furniture. A coffee maker was sold to the club for $5.

Club members approved a donation of $10 toward assisting the school board with the bill for school grounds landscaping.

O. J. White and Earl Parker came at the close of the business meeting to present a film on African natives and wild life.
