Mrs. Viola Zander, who underwent an appendectomy in the Salem Memorial hospital Friday evening, is reported to be doing nicely in spite of her 81 years, and expects to be brought home in a few days.

At a Friday night meeting at the Alex Bodeker home, it was decided to build a new church and to begin as soon as needs are known.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Berry spent New Year's day in Portland, where they were guests at the home of Mrs. Berry's brother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Prudeaux and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Julian with their families took a trip to the coast Sunday to inspect churches at Siletz, Newport and Alsea, to get ideas for the planning of the church the people of the community hope to build before long.

The Sunday school of the Community Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting at the parsonage

Tuesday evening. Many plans were made and discussed regarding the burning of the church, which took place Dec. 23. It was decided that the primary Sunday school will be held at the parsonage, with the upper classes and church services at the Catholic community building. A meeting is being held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bodeker to discuss the church problems.

A committee on survey was named, including J. E. Hargreaves, Glen Julian, John Prudeaux, O. S. Toland, Wendell Weaver and Virgil Rogers. A second meeting will be held at the Bodeker home Tuesday evening, Jan. 13 for further planning. Anyone interested may attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larimer and Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra visited the new Methodist church plant at Woodburn Sunday afternoon.

Vacationing in California for the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. George Nydegger and son Larry. They will go as far south as Bakersfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hurst, who have been living in the Bob Draper home west of town, have purchased the Clarence Jungwirth property and moved in New Year's day. Hurst is one of the teachers at the Mari-Linn school.

Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Inez Ring was her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Trask and daughter of Portland.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra spent New Year's Eve in Salem. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Roseberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Yeager and children from Corcoran, Calif., were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Yeager's mother, Mrs. Gladys Stiffler. They also visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Toland. Additional guests were Mrs. Winnie Wagner and George Dedrich of Dallas.

Christmas holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Remmenga were his brother and wife and

A week for everything! Now a tuna week — which prompts me to give you a delicious tuna pate recipe. Grind a 7-oz. can of tuna fish with 6 slices of crisp bacon. Stir in 6 tablespoons real mayonnaise, 2 tsp. lemon juice, a few drops of Tabasco and 1/4 tsp. salt. Mold and chill thoroughly. Serve with crackers.

Choose perfume to reflect the real you. Are you feminine as lace and chiffon, or the tweedy type, or pert and spicy, or sophisticated? There are perfumes for every type, so sniff them carefully before purchasing.

Roll out pastry dough between two pieces of heavy waxed paper. Saves flouring a board and rolling pin, also washing up afterward.

This French toast variation is scrumptious for luncheon or supper. Beat 1 cup milk, 3 eggs, 1/4 tsp. salt and 1/4 c. vitaminized margarine together. Dip slices of bread in mixture and on a greased cookie sheet broil on one side. Turn and top with slices of cheese and broil till cheese bubbles. Serve with a selection of jams and jellies.

For holiday feasts you naturally want to set your table prettily as well as bountifully. A colored table cloth gives a touch of glamour. To get just the right shade for your china, you can quickly and easily and economically tint an old, but spotless, white cloth with all-purpose dye in the washing machine.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(FHTNC)—Ski-plane or seaplane? The day is almost here when you won't be able to tell that it's a seaplane in the air. That deep hull seaplane silhouette may be about ready to give way to a new ski-plane look. When about to land, the ski-plane will extend its hydro gear, even as land-based planes now drop their wheels, and touch down smoothly on the water. It will then taxi on the skis to a ramp at the water's edge. Then, rolling on small beaching wheels in the skis, the ski-plane will roll up the ramp without any assistance and taxi to its parking space.
