Mill City Hi-Lites
By RICHARD LOVEL

The Mill City high school student body held an assembly last Wednesday, January 14. After a short business meeting the freshmen took over and entertained everyone with several skits. Barbara Podrabsky played an accordion solo and Diane Peterson played a piano solo.

The Girls Athletic association had a meeting Thursday. Besides some "confidential" business they are working on plans for their assembly in March.

The song leaders request that the boys be more careful about where they throw the basketball during warm-up before games and at half-time.

Lyle Fleetwood, halfback on the Mill City football team, was chosen to play in this year's east-west "B" Shrine football game. Also Dick Kanoff, halfback, and LeRoy Podrabsky, fullback, were chosen as alternates.

The Mill City frosh basketball team beat the Jefferson freshmen last Wednesday after school. The score was 30 to 19.

LYONS

Mr. and Mrs. Oral S. Toland were honored on their 45th wedding anniversary with a dinner held at their home, when all of the Toland children came to help them celebrate the occasion.

Covers were laid for the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fetherston, Ann, Leona and Mary, of Prineville; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gavette, Mark, Gary, Dorothy Ann, Mary Jane and Karen of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gavette, Lowell and Bruce, of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Toland, Sharon and Melvin of Lyons.

The juniors have lowered the price of the Timberwolf decals from 25c to 15c.

Everyone is glad that Mr. Hoeye is back teaching school now. He was unable to teach because of illness.

The Stayton high school has invited the Mill City high school students to a "hard-times party." Admission is ten cents and a safety pin. The students are faced with the annual catastrophe. The semester exams are just around the corner.
