Legion Auxiliary Plans Food Sale

The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was called to order by the president, Delores Stewart. There were eleven members present and one guest. Mrs. Ann Orlando, mother of Marie Stewart, was the guest.

On the 31st of January will stage a cooked-food sale. It will be held in Oleson's Apparel shop from 10 a.m. until sold out. Chairman for the sale is Marie Stewart. Those who will help are Ina Chase, Alice Roberts, and Barbara Minton and Delores Stewart. All food should be at the shop by 9:30 a.m. so it can be priced. Vanilla and extracts will be on sale also.

It was also called to the attention of the auxiliary, that "Girl's Stater", Delores Poole, was the only one who earned an "all A" record this quarter. She was 1951 Girl's Stater, for Mill City.

The constitution was brought up to date; some amendments changed and new ones added.

The John Muirs, C. W. Stewarts, the William Cauble's, the David Kellys, the Glen Mintons and Del Richards will attend the district convention at Woodburn.

Joan Cauble is the new child welfare chairman. She has been busy with needy families the past month.

At each meeting there is an attendance prize. Last meeting the following names were drawn, Isabella Calkins and Josephine Reid. Since they were not present, the attendance prize will be added to next month's.

Vanilla for the fund campaign was distributed to the members present. Members not present will get their vanilla in a few days. The money must be in by the 2nd of February.

Rosa Daly and Barbara Minton are new auxiliary members. A lovely lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. Martha Ragsdale and Mrs. Kay Colburn.

Clinic Immunizations Given Large Group

Mill City children of pre-school and school age received a double-barreled dose of preventative medicine during the past two weeks at the Mill City grade school. Mrs. Effie Cole, Marion county health department school nurse supervised the immunization of 150 children against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus and 130 against smallpox.

Mrs. Robert Wingo and Mrs. Al Nesbitt of Mill City assisted in the immunization work last Tuesday and Monday and Tuesday of this week. Pre-school, kindergarten and children in classes up to the eighth grade were given shots and immunized against communicable diseases.

A well-child conference work shop will be held in Stayton next Monday, January 26, at 1:15 p.m. at the Woman's club. Volunteers are needed for the work to be carried out in future well-child conferences. Mrs. Bernice Yearly, from Marion County Health department, will address those present for the well-child conference work shop in Stayton, her topic, "Purpose and philosophy of well-child conferences." A demonstration of a well-child conference and a film, "The Fears of Children" will be featured during next Monday afternoon's meeting in Stayton.

Mrs. Bea Graunke Hosts Lucky Twelve Pinochle

Gates Lucky Twelve Pinochle club members were not frightened by the rain storm nor the crumbling condition of the highway. They staged their pinochle session just the same. Mrs. Bea Graunke went about her duties as hostess as if nothing unusual was afoot in the skies above and river nearby. Her calmness firmness even the molded jello salad desert.

Mrs. Allura Barr bravely commanded the leading cardster role for the day, she won high prize. Mrs. Dorothy Johnson didn't let the pinochle prize float away from her. "Toots" Blazek paddled for dear life and by so doing had pinned upon her low prize.
