I Love My Mom

For the second time in two years, death in the form of respiratory polio has been put to flight by Mrs. Alice Jones of Oswego, Ore., with the aid of the March of Dimes. The young mother of three children had to undergo a throat operation while still dependant upon an iron lung to sustain breathing. Her six-year-old son Steven greets her as she returns from hospital still in an iron lung loaned by the local March of Dimes.
