Mill City, Jefferson Timberwolves Still Clash Tuesday Night Unbeaten In League

By RICHARD LOVEL

The Mill City Timberwolves are still in first place and are not yet defeated in the Marion county "B" league basketball race. Next Tuesday night, February 3, the Timberwolves will defend their position in a game with the Jefferson Lions. The game will be played on Mill City's home floor.

Early in the season Mill City beat Jefferson 47 to 39 in a league thriller. Now Mill City has an impressive record of nine wins and no losses. The Lions have won six and lost three. These standings will probably change somewhat after Friday night's games but Jefferson will probably still be the third place team.

Tuesday night's game is considered as one of Mill City's most important games. The husky Lions will be fighting to get to the top and the fast and spirited Timberwolves are determined to get their tenth win which would be another long step toward league championship and the chance for state "B" championship. Both teams are at a peak in their development. Considering all, this should be one of Mill City's most thrilling games and everyone will surely get their money's worth.

Mill City Hi-Lites

By RICHARD LOVEL

A change has been made in the Mill City high school student body officers. Carol Andreassen, one of our outstanding students, left Mill City high to go to Gates high school. She was the student body secretary and she was doing a good job too so we were sorry to see her go. Now we must elect a new secretary. The student council nominated Donna Bengston, JoAnn Hoffman, and Beryl Mason.

Pat Nibler, one of the Mill City song leaders has moved away. Donna Nelson, the senior rally squad leader has taken her place. Beryl Mason has taken Donna's place on the rally squad.

Robert Veness took pictures last Wednesday of the classes, the teams, and the other organizations. It was somewhat of a holiday for most of the students who have just gotten through with the semester exams.

Report cards are coming out Friday.

The junior class is starting on its class play which is a mystery comedy, "Three Fingers in the Door". The members of the cast will be Robert Keyes, Donna Bengston, Frances Johnson, Richard Verbeck, Regine Brewer, Gerry Hamblin, Donna Ellingson, Richard Lovel, Dorothy Steinfeldt, Elton Gregory and Dale Andreassen. Mr. Chaney, the junior class advisor, will direct the play.

There will be a party after the Gervais basketball game Friday night for students of both schools.
