

FEMME PAGE

F. O. E. St. Patrick's Dance Draws Crowd

The St. Patrick's dance sponsored by the F.O.E. Ladies Auxiliary No. 2745 Saturday night, March 14th at the Detroit high school auditorium, drew a nice attendance regardless of the foul weather on hand.

A special feature of the evening was two door prizes given away to the lucky persons holding the corresponding numbers on their dance ticket.

Top prize, an electric perculator was awarded to Miss Marlene Shepard, Idanha and Martin (Slim) McCann was second prize, an ash stand.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to the following merchants and individuals for their whole-hearted co-operation in distributing our dance tickets and shamrocks:

Meander Inn, Mill City Tavern, Jerry's Tavern (Reds), Chuck's Steak House, Stout's Service Station, Cedar Tavern, Lake Cafe, Lake Club, Spillway Tavern, Dine and Dance Club, and Scott Young's.

We also wish to thank the merchants of Idanha and Detroit who contributed so generously to our social a short time ago.

To all members of F.O.E. Ladies Auxiliary Aerie 1745, on March 25th at 8 p.m. at the home of Sister Carrie Bullard (regular meeting place) there

Legion Auxiliary Entertains District President

The American Legion auxiliary unit 159 of Mill City had as their guest Mrs. Eva Humphreys of Stayton, district president. Delores Stewart, local auxiliary president, as her gift to the district president, presented her with a beautiful orchid. Mrs. Humphreys gave a short talk on the responsibilities of the unit during the month of April, Child Welfare month.

Ledora Kelly reported the making of one sweater for the orphanage in Korea, and thirty-eight ditty bags for the boys in the hospitals.

The local schools have been contacted and the children will begin making posters for the Poppy Poster contest. There will be three prizes for each of the schools.

March 28 there will be an extra special surprise at the "birthday party," Delores Stewart informed the auxiliary. Joan Cauble was made chairman of the food committee for the evening.

Mrs. Ina Chase and Delores Stewart were put on a committee to see about getting frames made for the two flags will be an initiation of new members followed by nominatin of new officers.—Boots Champion, Reporter.

Rainbow Girls Hold Initiation Ceremony

By GERALDINE HAMBLIN

Acacia Assembly of Rainbows initiated Donna Ellingson at Stayton, Wednesday evening, March 18, in colorful ceremonies of the order.

The girls of Stayton Assembly are looking forward to the Grand Assembly to be held at Tillamook March 26, 27 and 28, this year.

Rainbow Girls of Mill City are selling Easter Lillies for the Easter Seal drive. Why not buy one and help those who need your help? If you cannot locate the girls who are selling them, you can put your contribution in one of the containers which are located at Muir's bakery, Ressler's grocery, and Hill Top general store.

that were given to the unit by two Gold Star mothers. It was voted to send flowers to the Gold Star Mothers in our unit for Easter.

After the meeting there was a lovely program. A trio composed of Ina Chase, Joan Cauble, and Dorothy Dyhrman sang two songs. Mrs. Don Peterson accompanied the girls on the piano. Mrs. Dorothy Vale gave a skit about a Boy Wilmer. Mrs. Ione Thielke sang a special song called "Would You Like to Buy a Poppy?" On the evening of the 28th at about 9 p.m., they will show the Poppy film. It shows how poppies are made, to what use the money is put. The public is invited to see the film. Mrs. Thielke also sang several other numbers. Each of the ladies were presented with a gardenia corsage as appreciation from Delores Stewart.

Table decorations were St. Patrick's day in theme. In the center of the table was a big cake with "Welcome Mrs. Humphreys" written in Patty's day theme. Besides the members the following guests were present: Mrs. Ruth Hess, Mrs. Mary Mundt, Mrs. Ede Kanoff, Mrs. Ione Thielke, Miss Frances Namislo, Mrs. Dorothy Vale, Mrs. Don Peterson, Mrs. H. E. Mason of Bonneville unit, and Mrs. Dorothy Dyhrman.

MILL CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bassett (Ursula Witt) and son, Frances Dale, are moving back to this vicinity from the east coast, where he has been stationed since his graduation from Oregon State college three years ago. The Bassetts are making the trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson were in Roseburg Sunday to see Mrs. Johnson's brother, Paul Cree, who was in a logging accident last week and is in the Douglas community hospital in Roseburg. Cree will be in the hospital for almost a year. Reports are that he is getting along satisfactorily.

The Mill City school band wishes to thank the band mothers and patrons who generously helped during the Salem concert. About $124

June Miley Wins Speech Contest

June Miley of the Mill City Toastmistress club was the winner of the speech contest held Thursday night, March 12, in competition with speakers from the Stayton Toastmistress club, and the two Toastmistress clubs in Salem. Jane Starr, of the Stayton club, won the alternate, or second place.

The dinner meeting was held at the Golden Pheasant, in Salem and was conducted by Mrs. Grace Hartley of the Salem club, as toastmistress. The judges were Mrs. Edith Mason, Mill City; Robert Forkner, Capitol Toastmasters club, Salem; Robert Sederstrom, Salem Toastmasters club, and Mrs. Marion Curry, Salem.

The speakers, and the subjects of their 10-minute prepared speeches, were: Ruth Jaynes, "Hurry Up and Wait" (Salem Toastmistress club); Ruth Haskins, "Teacher, Listen—the Children Speak" (Chemeketa Toastmistress club, Salem); Jane Starr, "A Thought for Tomorrow" (Stayton Toastmistress club); and June Miley, "The Schools—Our Greatest Bargain" (Mill City Toastmistress club).

After the prepared speeches, the contestants were each assigned, without previous notice, a subject on which to give an impromptu 5-minute speech, as follows: Ruth Jaynes, "Oregon Sunsets"; Ruth Haskins, "Oregon Flowers"; Jane Starr, "Oregon Coast" and June Miley, "Oregon Weather".

All of the speeches were interesting and well delivered, and the respective clubs were all very proud of their club representative in the contest.

Entertainment was provided by Coralee Daughton and Aimie Girod of Willamette Music school, and a novelty trumpet number presented by Doris Starrett, Jerry Stewart and Jim Fiske of Salem high school.

June Miley will compete in April, at Eugene, and if successful there will go on to further competition in Tacoma, Salem and finally—the International Toastmistress convention in Portland, next July, for the finals.

were realized toward the uniform fund according to Bandmaster Loucks.

Mrs. Guy Sorensen and son Darrel Farmen left for Seattle where Darrel flew to Alaska where he has work. Mrs. Sorensen spent some time in Canada and returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Baltimore were in Salem Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Anderson.

Mrs. Helen Jull, Mrs. Maggie Shaw and Mrs. Bertha Shelton attended a special guest day luncheon and service sponsored by the Christian Woman's Fellowship at Silverton Tuesday of this week.

RALEIGH HAROLD, Florist, open Sundays and evenings, flowers telegraphed anywhere. Funeral sprays, planters, pot plants, corsages, weddings, also shrubs and landscaping. 319 W. Washington, Stayton. Phone 3684. 12tf Visitors at the Herbert Schroeder home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schroeder and family of Forest Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schroeder plan to spend several days in Forest Grove this week with their granddaughter, Patricia Schroeder, who is celebrating her 13th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Leora Caraway, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Fish, Mrs. Susie Haynes, Mrs. Eathel Hill and Minister and Mrs. H. E. Jull, attended the revival services at the Stayton Church of Christ Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Amy Simmons who passed away recently and was buried at Franklin Butte cemetery near Scio made her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tunnell of Vernonia since leaving Mill City a number of years ago, instead of with Mrs. Robert Anglesey of Idaho as was stated in last week's Enterprise.

Wilma Jull, who has been attending Northwest Christian college at Eugene, came home Wednesday for the spring vacation between quarters.

Miss Julia Kemp is opening a beauty shop in Mill City and is planning an "open house" on Saturday afternoon, March 28, in the building

Scout Roundtable Held at Lebanon

Calapooia District Scouters met at Green Acres grade school at Lebanon Thursday night, March 12 for the regular monthly roundtable meeting. The U.S. Army Ground Observation Force gave an explanation of their observation and showed a film on assimilated bombing run over New York City. The importance of air observation was stressed by Lt. Lanagan and Sgt. Penny from Portland.

About 105 Scouters were in attendance. Charles Cammack, district chairman, stressed the importance of the Scouts attending the national Jamboree at Santa Ana, Calif. Boys should have their $25 deposit and application in before April 15 deadline.

After the general meeting, groups divided into their respective divisions. The Cubbing section was led by Mrs. Joel Fosdick, and the Hawaiian theme for April was used as training material to the enjoyment of all. Looking ahead for ideals and skills for the next month's program is what cubbers are there for. We saw lots of new faces from Mill City, Lyons, Scio, Cascadia, Holley, Lebanon, Sweet Home, and Albany. LeRoy Schroeder, cubmaster of Pack 31 of Sweet Home was elected the new group chairman for the next three-month period. Pack 81 from Lyons gave a Hawaiian skit; Pack 51 from Lebanon also gave a Hawaiian skit, Pack 79 of Waterloo demonstrated a game; Pack 97, Holley, a skit; Pack 31, Sweet Home, demonstrated handicraft; and Pack 125, Albany had charge of the closing ceremony.

Explorer section was led by Bob Weeks from Troop 100, Albany. Coming training courses for Explorer leaders was discussed and Explorer Scouts from Holley, Sweet Home, Lebanon and Albany, outlined the various responsibilities held by each Junior leader in Explorer posts. The plans were made to attend the Explorer Air Force Career Day to be held at Willamette university, Saturday, April 25. All Explorer Scouts in uniform will be guests of the Air Force that day.

The Scouting section was led by Don Benson. Russell Harrison reported on troop programming and methods of handling troop administration. Don Pritchett, neighborhood commissioner from Lebanon was elected chairman of the Scouters section for the next three month period.

Events discussed by commissioners section were, Junior leaders training course, on April 18 and 19 at Silver Creek camp, The council-wide Scout Circus, May 9, at Waters Field in Salem; May 2, Calapooia district Camporee at Camp Knut Morrison; Camp Pioneer Boy Scout summer camp, and Explorer Adventure trail July 19 to August 15. Cost $15 per boy.

formerly occupied by Dr. Teutsch next door to the Mill City variety store on Broadway. Miss Kemp is a sister of Mrs. Bert Morris. Assisting in the shop will be Mrs. Thelma Brown.

SPECIAL—One machine of clothes washed FREE at Gates Automatic Laundry—if you present this ad. 9 lbs. washed and damp dried 30c (soap free); 9 lbs. dried 25c. 12-2p

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olmstead were in Lyons Sunday, where they attended a family reunion at the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olmstead. The occasion honored several members of the family having birthday anniversaries, including Walter Olmstead.

SUNDAY & MONDAY

MITZI GAYNOR, and SCOTT BRADY in Damon Runyan's

Bloodhounds of Broadway In Technicolor

Feature at 5:20, 7:30 Sunday

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

RICHARD CARLSON, FRANK LOVEJOY and ANITA LOUISE in Retreat, Hell!

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

JANE RUSSELL and GEORGE BRENT in

Montana Belle

In Color — Plus —

JANET LEIGH and KEENAN WYNN in

Fearless Fagan

Kid's Matinee—2 p.m. Saturday 'ANGELS IN THE OUTFIELD' and COMIC BOOKS

Doors open at 7:20 P.M. Complete show can be seen any time up to 8:30

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS AND INVITATIONS at The Mill City Enterprise

THIEL'S MARKET

Your S & H

Green Stamp Store

LYONS, ORE.

Be Sure To Hear the Famous Eugene Gleemen

IN THE SANTIAM MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Benefit Concert

Tuesday, March 24 -- 8 P.M.

AT THE UNION HIGH SCHOOL — IN STAYTON

If you've heard them sing, you'll not miss this chance to hear them again . . . If you haven't heard the Gleemen, you will never forget this evening of entertainment.

A full evening of singing by these acclaimed "professional amateurs" that have delighted audiences from Canada to Southern California!

ADMISSIONS: Adults $1.00, Students 50c, Children (under 12 years) 25c

Sponsored by the Founders Organization of Santiam Memorial Hospital

NET PROCEEDS OF THIS CONCERT WILL GO TO PURCHASE AN "AIR LOCK" FOR THE NEW HOSPITAL

Ramage's

Save up to $100.00

on a Television Set
March Clean-up Sale

OF FLOOR DEMONSTRATORS SLIGHTLY DAMAGED AND 1952 MODEL SETS

DOZENS OF OTHER SAVINGS IN RADIOS, RECORDS AND OTHER ITEMS

AT HEIDER'S

428 COURT and 1120 CENTER ST. — SALEM

OPEN FRIDAY NIGHTS from 7 to 9