Detroit Lady Eagles Sponsor Egg Hunt

By BOOTS CHAMPION
Old Man Sol won out over threatening skies Easter Sunday to set a sunny stage for the big Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the F. O. E. Auxiliary.

Approximately ninety excited children in two age groups, took off at the sound of the whistle, escorted by stand-in bunnies Elaine Farrow and Emma Rhodes dressed in white bunny suits their pink ears flapping in the breeze to find the 540 colored eggs which were hidden in the surrounding wooded area of the school.

Children finding prize eggs marked with denominations from 5c to 50c were paid and then enjoyed hot dogs and buns.

Serving were Carrie Bullard, Margaret Howland, and Fay Cooper.

Assisting on the grounds were Irene Stout, Helen Bryant, Ann Fagan, Boots Champion, and Ann Stevens.

We wish to thank Lyle Wilson and Lee Howland for their co-operation.
