average about 15c per person. At the meeting place it would be necessary for Mr. Pruess to have two women to help with the recording and if as many as 75 people were involved it would take about two hours time. Any group wanting to have this done may contact Mr. Pruess at the Santiam Memorial hospital by telephone or personal interview.

GATES

The following members of the Gates Birthday club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Mary Champ: Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Gerald Heath, Mrs. Edmund Davis, Mrs. Robert Levon, Mrs. Gwen Schaer, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Oscar Osterhout, Mrs. Mabel Knutson, Mrs. Bertha Bowes, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, Mrs. Merle Devine, Mrs. Blanch Syverson, Mrs. Floyd Bassett and Miss Elizabeth Thompson. Mrs. Barnhardt brought home the first prize; Mrs. Syverson, second; Mrs. Bassett, consolation and Mrs. Devine visitors prize. Mrs. Edward Chance and Mrs. Walter Thomas took a group of Theta Rho girls to the district convent held in Salem last week. Roy Arthurs of Spokane, Wash., is visiting at the homes of relatives in Gates for the next two weeks, at the homes of his sisters, Mrs. Walter Brisbin and Mrs. Oscar Osterhout and his brother, George Arthurs.

Miss Birdie Larson accompanied her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brisbin, to Yoncalla last weekend where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Eades.

At the Walter Thomas home over Sunday, from Vancouver, Wash., were Mrs. Thomas' mother and brother, Mrs. I. R. Zigler and Elvin Marlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miller of Prineville were Sunday visitors in Gates and attended the program held at the Gates Community Christian church Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Paul Camrack, returned missionaries from Bolivia, talked and showed pictures of that country. The Camracks and their family plan to return to Bolivia in September to resume their missionary work.

"Russ" Stafford was badly shaken up and bruised as the result of an auto accident Friday night in Mill City. He was not hospitalized but his car was badly damaged.

Mrs. Jenny Kitcherson left the last of the week for Mitchell, Ore., to join her husband who is employed there. They will make Mitchell their home.

Mrs. Bertha Shepherd is in the Santiam Memorial hospital where she will be under observation for several days.

Mrs. Cecil Haun was taken to the Salem Memorial hospital last week where she will be for several more days. Mr. Haun, who has been employed in Redding, Calif., was called home by his wife's illness. The Haun family have moved from their home, which was recently sold to one of the Volk tenants. The new owners of the former Haun home have taken possession.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millsap and son, Robert, from Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. Millsap's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap. Ralph Millsap is vice president of the PGE.

L. T. Henness, who has been seriously ill since the first of the year, has made a marked recovery and is now able to be up and around again and had many callers and well wishers Sunday. Among them were Mrs. Jessie Hutchin and son, Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hutchin and family of Salem, all former residents of Gates; Mrs. Forest Nydegger and daughter, Mrs. Betty Hunt, Z. Z. Tucker and son, Steven and Don Savage, all of Lyons, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eades of Mill City. His great grand-daughter and son, Mrs. Clyde Schroeder and Jimmy, Mrs. "Bud" Schroeder and son and Clare Henness, a grandson.

Out of the state guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clise were Mrs. Clise's sister and family, Mrs. Gladys Besse and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Neeley and daughter, all from Anaheim, Calif., and E. L. Ferguson of Lakeport, Cal. George Clise returned home Wednesday of last week from California where he had been called by the death of his step-father. A birthday dinner complimenting Burrel Cole on his birthday anniversary was given by Mrs. Glen Henness at her home Wednesday evening. Present were the honored guest, wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. Cole and Marol, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Henness and sons, Keith and Earle.
