Ardith Jones Will Hold Open-house

Miss Ardith Jones has invited members of the Mill City high school graduating class of 1952 to her home following the local commencement program on May 29 for refreshments. Miss Jones, a student at Lewis and Clark college in Portland, is last year's class president. Students in the group include: Dolores Poole, OCE; Donna Cooke, Alona Daly, Bob Shelton, Gary Peterson, U. of O.; Arlene Kuhlman, Lela Kelly, Charles O'Kins, O.S.C.; Elaine Clark, O.T.I.; David Keyes, Reed; and Shelby Umphress in California.

Three of the class have entered the service. Glade Waite is in Indiana with the US Air Force; Bill Hamblin is in California serving with the army; and Delmar Skillings at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Other members of the class include: Mrs. Franklin McDowell (Maxine Scott), Mrs. William McClintock (Patricia Cree), and Mrs. Kenneth Weathers (Beverly Timm). Bob Baltimore, Dick Downer, Elnora Albright, Joyce Westgaard, and Vera Loucks of Salem, Denny Marttala of Portland, Hazel Neal, Daryl Farman. Mrs. Edith Mason was the 1952 class adviser.

Mrs. Colis Heath Honored by Shower

Mrs. Colis Heath (Frances Young) was the honored guest at a pink and blue shower Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Gwen Schaar.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Robert Levon and Mrs. Edward Chance. Following games and the opening of the gifts, refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. Heath, Mesdames Gerald Heath, Melvin Newberg, Len Young, Albert Millsap, Velma Carey, Clare Henness, Victor Herron, Verner Evans, Mable Knutson, Percy Mulligan, Glen Henness, Burrell Cole, Clarence Rush, Delora Stiff, Edmund Davis, William Pennick, Elmer Stewart, Lois Kelle and Ward Stalman, the Misses Elizabeth Thompson and Dorothy Newberg. Sending gifts were Mesdames Harold Wilson, Donald Carey, Norman Carey, Walter Brisbin, Roy Taylor, W. R. Hutcheson, Floyd Volkkel, Dan Morrison, Merle Devine, and Martha Bowes.

DRIVER'S LICENSE EXAMINER

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Mill City Thursday, May 28, 1953, at the Fire hall between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., according to an announcement received from the Secretary of State's office.

Persons wishing original licenses or permits to drive are asked to file applications well ahead of the scheduled closing hour in order to assure time for completion of the required license test.

Camp Fire Girls Hold Ceremonial

Mrs. Lee Pinkston, one of the Guardians, had charge of the candle lighting of ranks which began the ceremonial, and called the membership roll. Second, third and fourth grade Blue Birds sang their special song, "Listen to the Blue Birds," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Delos Hoeye who furnished all the musical accompaniment.

Mrs. Roger Nelson, out-going PTA president, then introduced the fourth grade Blue Birds who were ready to "fly-up" into the rank of Camp Fire. Receiving their ties were:

Donna Hurd, Jo Ellen Agee, Larrel Holt, Doris Hutchinson, Judith Kay, Shirley Meeks, Marilyn Malden, Ellena Nelson, Carolyn Podrabsky, Sylvia Peterson, Linda Rowe, Judy Voskell, and Sharon Whitsett,

Mrs. Harry Dyhrman spoke on national membership and gave 3-year pins to Karen Rue, Sue Rue, and Carol Lea Merrill, and Mrs. Vernon Todd, youth chairman of the Woman's club which sponsors the local Camp Fire organization presented the Service awards to the following girls who had given many hours of service to the Community Chest, the PTA's annual International Dinner, as well as helping neighbors and friends:

Mary Lou Andrews, Barbara Bauer, Ellena Beery, Claudia Bruder, Yvonne Dickie, Linda Lee Herman, Sandra Harrington, Clara Melting, Carol Lee Merrill, Frances Nesbitt, Sue Rue, Sandra Thomas, Delores Andrews, Carol Cooke, Linda Dyhrman, Sybil Dart, Barbara Fleming, Norma Nelson, Sharon Rowe, Karen Rue, Naomi Taylor, Olive Taylor, Carol Veness, and Marcella Warriner.

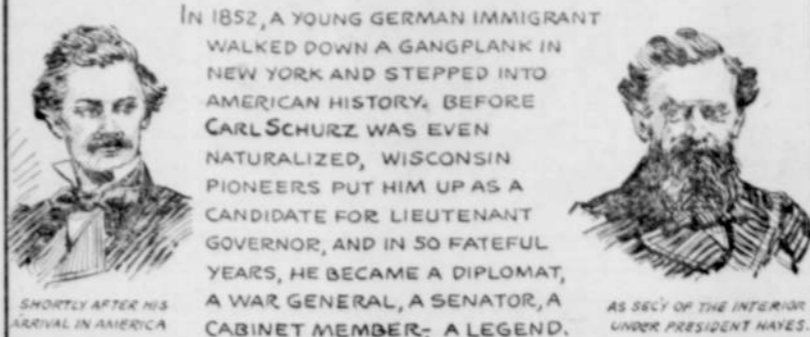

Special mention was given to Lynn Smith who is still an active member of Mrs. Pinkston's group while attending Oregon State Blind school at Salem. Lynn has distinguished herself by giving many hours of service in the school.

One-half campships were awarded to the Camp Fire Girl and the Blue Bird who sold the most chocolate mints during the annual national Camp Fire drive last February. They were Carol Cooke, Camp Fire and Carol Anderson, Blue Bird.

Mayor John Muir commended all

AMERICANS ALL

THE ANONYMOUS IMMIGRANT WHO WALKED OFF THE BOAT YESTERDAY, OR LAST WEEK, OR LAST YEAR, EAGER TO BREATHE THE SWEET AIR OF FREEDOM, MAY NOT BE ANONYMOUS FOR LONG. BECAUSE THERE IS NO CEILING HERE ON OPPORTUNITY, HE MAY BE ANOTHER CARL SCHURZ.

Camp Fire leaders for their splendid work with the girls, and awarded the rank of Trail Seekers to Delores Andrews, Judith Hoeye, Marcella Warriner, Lynn Smith, Mary Lou Andrews, Barbara Bauer, Ellena Beery, Claudia Bruder, Yvonne Dickie, Linda Lee Herman, Sandra Harrington, Sue Rue, Clara Melting, Carol Lee Merrill, Frances Nesbitt, Sandra Thomas, Carol Warner, and Rita Malde; Wood Gatherers' rank went to Shereen Muir, Carol Veness, Olive Taylor, Naomi Taylor, Karen Rue, Sandra Rowe, Barbara Fleming, and Sybil Dart.

Mayor Muir also presented the Fire Makers rank to Carol Cooke, Linda Dyhrman, and Norma Nelson, which is the highest rank in Mill City's Camp Fire groups at this time.

District Forest Ranger S. T. Moore, a special guest, presented the Birthday honors to the girls receiving Trail Seekers, Wood Gatherers, and Fire Makers ranks. This is an award received by the girls for their work in the study of conservation methods and practices.

Mrs. Court Rue read the roll call of those extinguishing the candles, after which the flag was carried out and the closing song sung. Camp Fire and Blue Bird leadership is provided by the following ladies to these groups: Wo To Leto—Mrs. Lee Pinkston, leader, and Mrs. Harry Dyhrman, assistant leader; To He Tin Tin—Mrs. Court Rue, leader, Mrs. L. B. Herman, assistant leader; Lucky Blue Birds—Mrs. L. B. ## Toastmistress Meet Scheduled Ahead

Pat Wingo of Mill City was chosen Thursday, May 14, as the delegate from the Mill City Toastmistress club to the regional speech contest and meeting in Tacoma, May 16 and 17. The winning speakers at Tacoma will compete at the International Toastmistress convention in Portland in July.

The program for the evening was built entirely around the members of President Eisenhower's cabinet. The characteristics, qualifications, background and duties of each of the members of the cabinet were explained in detail. Ruby Crosier presided.

Invocation was given by Aline Steffy. Lucille Lowery was designated topicmistress for the evening, and Pat Wingo presided as toastmistress. Barbara Yarnell gave an interesting and educational speech on the subject of "Announcements".

Members will please note that the next regular meeting of the Toastmistress club will be held Wednesday, May 27th, instead of the usual Thursday meeting, in order not to conflict with the Mill City high school graduation exercises on May 29.

Snappy Blue Birds group—Mrs. A. J. Yankus, leader, and Mrs. F. Merrill, assistant.

Coffee, tea, fruit punch, and specially decorated cakes were served all members and guests at the conclusion of the second successful Camp Fire ceremonial held in Mill City.
