Canyon Avenue--

ough investigation." * * * The West is coming to the realization more and more every day that they have been sold a "white elephant" by the Republican party and that McKay is doing his share by the way he has set policy for Bonneville power rates and his attitude towards Hell's Canyon development. Eisenhower's "team" is taking us down the river to the poor house and his "hard money" policy is adding billions of dollars to the tax and interest load the low income groups all over the nation must carry. The next step will be a sales tax to raise the additional money necessary to make up for all the things the Republican 'give-away' artists have already given away.

The Moores' memorial in Salem is raising quite a fuss, perhaps the old fellow being a bachelor all his life might really like such a lady to watch over him. I think, however, it might be more appropriate in an art gallery.
