DETROIT

By BOOTS CHAMPION

Saturday was moving day for the Dick Farrow family, who left Detroit for Idanha. Mr. Farrow is a logger employed by Bud Haseman.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Rasmussen and children, John and Mary Pat, were weekend guests at the home of the S. T. Moores. Mr. Rasmussen, who is with the Washington, D. C. office of the U. S. Forest Service, was a former district ranger from Detroit. He will be in Region 6 for a month. Mrs. Rasmussen and the children will spend part of this time with her folks in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walters of Roseburg were recent visitors at the Sol Tucker house and while in Detroit called on Mr. and Mrs. Frances Stout.

Mr. and Mrs. Chick Mason left Monday for Crescent City, Calif., where they will spend part of the week. Their daughter and son-in-law, Hazel and Bill Gabriel of Sweet Home, were guests of the Masons this weekend. Miss Martha Mason returned to Sweet Home with them for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Menasco of Coos Bay, former Detroit residents, were Canyon visitors this weekend when they drove up on a sight-seeing trip to the dam and lake.

Because of poor attendance as the result of illness and vacations, the choir of the Detroit Church of Christ will hold no more practices until fall.

In Detroit this weekend to complete moving arrangements to their new home at Mill City were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Cooper and children,

Peggy and Sandy, who at present are living at Lyons.

OLD IRONSIDES

Thanks to a succession of victorious engagements with British men-of-war, and a stirring poem by Oliver Wendell Holmes, the U. S. Frigate Constitution found an honored harbor in the hearts of Americans.

Launched in 1797, this gallant battle-wagon of the early American Navy well deserved her nick-name. Again and again she sailed in defense of Freedom; and Time alone, of all her foes, put her out of action.

We cherish Old Ironsides as a symbol of the courage that has so often preserved the liberties our forefathers purchased so dearly. And, more than ever before, we are coming to appreciate the part the Church plays in strengthening our nation—the Church which those first Americans brought to these shores that they might worship God unhindered in a free new world.

For, transcending even Time, the Church fortifies our Freedom with the Faith in which always it has flourished!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
