Barbara Haun Married To Wilmer Crites Saturday Evening in Mill City

GATES—The Mill City Presbyterian church was the scene Saturday evening, July 18th, of a wedding of interest to many friends when Miss Barbara Haun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haun became the bride of Wilmer Crites, son of Mrs. Harry Harmon. The marriage was solemnized by the Rev. Noble Streeter, at eight o'clock. Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Don Sheythe at the organ and Mrs. Dan Morrison, who was soloist. Miss Louise Haun, sister of the bride, and Miss Ann Marie Hirte lighted the candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin designed with an overskirt of silk net and lace, a deep net yoke, long sleeves and court train. A fingertip veil of silk net, with lace edge, was arranged from a satin Juliet cap trimmed in seed pearls and rhinestones. The bride carried a white bible with white streamers knotted with white baby carnations.

Miss Eileen Eccleston was maid of honor. She wore an orchid sheer gown with lace trim and carried a bouquet of white carnations, with head dress to match.

The flower girl, little Susan Rynearson, was dressed in a floor length dress of pink eyelet, trimmed in blue for-get-me-nots and carried a basket of sweetpeas with pendant streamers of white satin.

Best man attending the bridegroom was Daniel Romey. Ushering were Mervin Haun, brother of the bride, and Herbert Romey.

The bride's mother was dressed in a black and white print suit with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a black dress with accessories of

Gates Woman's Club Meets Thursday At High School

GATES—Members of the Gates Woman's club met in regular session Thursday evening, July 16th, in the recreation rooms of the high school. Mrs. Kenneth Martig presided at a short business session. The main business of the evening was the election of Mrs. Dale Reynolds to serve as treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Lewis Brown, who is moving in the near future. Mrs. Walter Thomas, chairman of the Youth Committee, gave an interesting report on the activities of the local young folk of the community. She reported that the senior Girl Scouts, members of the Gates troop, would leave Sunday for an extended trip through Oregon, Washington and into Canada. Mrs. Verner Evans, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt and Mrs. John Watson, hostesses, served refreshments to Mrs. Martig, Mrs. Philip Hess, Mrs. Dale Reynolds, Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Lincoln Hennes, Mrs. Glen Gordon, Mrs. Walter Thomas, Mrs. Albert Millsap and Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood and Mrs. Tim White, who were welcomed as new members.

white. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Following the service a reception was held in the social rooms of the church. Mrs. Floyd Volkel cut the wedding cake; Mrs. Al Haun, aunt of the bride, presided at the coffee urn. Miss Beverly Nunn served punch. Mrs. Glen Hearing passed the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a green tailored suit with white accessories. After a short honeymoon the groom will report for duty at his station in California. The bride is employed in Salem.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE HAS PICNIC TUESDAY EVENING

The Friendship Circle of the Presbyterian Church held a picnic for their husbands and families in the Stayton city park on Tuesday evening, July 21. Following the bounteous picnic, entertainment consisted of a softball game between the women and men, the final score being 15 to 14 in favor of the men. Some of the crowd enjoyed swimming before eating.

Attending the very successful affair were Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sheythe, Denny and Mark Sheythe, Mrs. Howard Means, Kit, Karen, and Tommy Means, Mrs. Ed Yarnell and Phillip, Norman Havervroft, Harold Kliewer, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Streeter, Stephen and Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kelly and Johnny.

MANY ACTIVITIES HONOR FORMER LOCAL RESIDENTS

This past weekend saw a large group of "old-time" residents of Mill City gathering together for an impromptu three-day visit. The surprise reunion was begun by the arrival of several members of the F. R. Olin family, Mr. Olin having been general manager of the Hammond Lumber Company holdings in this vicinity for many years, but now living in Vernonia, Oregon.

Friday evening a covered-dish dinner was given at the home of Mrs. W. W. Allen, honoring the visitors, including Mrs. F. R. Olin of Vernonia, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Olin, Jr., of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gowen (Frances Olin) of Bainbridge Island, near Seattle, Washington. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill, Mrs. J. F. Potter, and the hostess, Mrs. W. W. Allen.

The Curtis Cline residence was the scene of a "pot-luck" dinner for the out-of-town visitors on Saturday evening, those honored being Mrs. F. R. Olin, the Fred Olin, Jr., the Vincent Gowens, and Mrs. A. A. Holthouse and her daughter, Miss Mary Holthouse, of Corvallis, also former residents. Local persons attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Sig Jepson, Mrs. Harry Mason, Mrs. R. F. Saucier, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. J. F. Potter, Mrs. W. W. Allen, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cline.

Final "get-together" for the large group was a no-host dinner at Mrs. J. F. Potter's home Sunday evening. Besides the visiting members of the Olin family, additional guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gentry of Salem, Mrs. Mary McLane, who is a house-guest of Mrs. Potter's from the Bay district in California, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly and Johnny, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill, Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cline, and the hostess, Mrs. J. F. Potter.

Mrs. Mary McClain of California, who is visiting here, Mrs. Cora Goodwin and her granddaughter Miss Corabelle Munsey of Walla Walla, Wash., Mrs. W. Robinson and Mrs. Elsie Potter, left Tuesday for Roads End on the coast, to spend a few days at the Potter cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burgess of Klamath Falls, Oregon, visited at the home of the latter's brother, Wallace Diers in this city, Saturday. During the afternoon Mrs. Burgess, accompanied by Mrs. Emma Teeter, drove to Gates where they were guests of Mrs. Wilma Berry and her mother, Mrs. Nora Goodwin. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess visited in Albany at the Case home before returning to Klamath Falls.

Men like SHORT RIBS OF BEEF

MEATY BEEF SHORT RIBS

You brown them richly in fat, then cook them gently until all the good flavors of seasonings—hot and sweet and sharp—mingle with the good flavor of beef. That's short ribs—barbecued.

Barbecued Short Ribs

3 lbs. short ribs	1/2 cup water
2 tbsps. lard	3 tbsps. Worcestershire sauce (optional)
1 medium onion	1 tsp. prepared mustard
1/4 cup vinegar	1/2 cup diced celery
2 tbsps. brown sugar	2 tpsps. salt
1 cup catchup

Have ribs cut into sections two to three inches long. Brown in lard. Add minced onion and brown. Add all remaining ingredients to short ribs. Cover and cook slowly or bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 1 1/2 to 2 hours or until tender. Serves 4 or 5.
