DETROIT

By Boots Champion

At last Wednesday nights council meeting, John Estey was appointed to take Nolan Rasnick's place as councilman for the remainder of the term and Archie Mattoon was appointed mayor of Detroit, succeeding Nolan Rasnick, who has moved to Stayton. The council also approved Raymond Sophy's (Detroit Market) application for a class B package license.

The Industrial Hospital ambulance stationed at Idanha for the past six or seven years, has served notice that they have discontinued the ambulance service for the next month or two.

The F. O. E. auxiliary is one building richer, through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. John Krause, who donated and moved the building on the lot. The auxiliary will use it for storage.

John Meals and family, who moved here recently from Gates, is not project (resident) engineer as previously stated in a recent issue. Walter Mackey of Mill City is project engineer.

Wilbur Harlan is trying to get squared around with the world again, on a day shift, after putting in four years and two weeks night shift on the Dam. He is employed at Big Cliff.

Visiting at the Harold Champion home on Wednesday and Thursday of last week was Mrs. Ada Nunes, formerly Ada Hayes, of Milwaukee, Ore. Other guests on Sunday were Mrs. Emma Ramage of Salem and children, Joan and Webb.

Earl Layman of Detroit, Gordon Hull of Salem and Howard Maw of Burns, spent the weekend fishing the Deschutes in eastern Oregon.

Visitors at the John Estey home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Hoagland and grandson Mike of Scio, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bilyeu of Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Bilyeu, formerly Phyla Smith, resided in Detroit about 60 years ago. She is an aunt of Mrs. Estey's, who she has not seen for several years.

Dr. E. E. Biard of Toledo, was a weekend visitor in Detroit.

Nine Boy Scouts from the Idanha-Detroit area, returned home recently from an annual outing at Camp Pioneer, where they joined in activities with 125 boy scouts from other districts. Those attending were Michael Moore, Brad Humphrey Jr., Robert Gordon, Don Watkins, Myron Williams, Jimmy Gulliford, Gary Roberts, Don and Leonard Snyder. Scout leaders were S. T. Moore, district ranger, Al Warby, Francis Kettleson, Warren Stoll and Jim Giebler.

A group of 40 young people, accompanied by Rev. Robert Unger, pastor of the Idanha Church of Christ, left Dallas, August 6th, for the Evangelical Mennonite Brethren's Youth Retreat camp at Burlington, Washington. Bible classes were attended in the morning, services in the evening, and the afternoon spent in recreational activities.

A 1952 Ford sedan, purchased at 11 a. m. Saturday morning, was badly wrecked Saturday afternoon when it tipped over on the highway in front of the Lake Cafe. The car, registered to S. H. Wilkerson of Molalla, Ore., and its four occupants, was traveling east when a west-bound car turned off the highway to the left, in front of them. The driver of the sedan apparently applied the brakes too fast, and at the same time turning to the left to avoid a smash-up, caused the car to upset. Miraculously, no-one was seriously injured.

Felicitations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gabriel (formerly Hazel Mason of Detroit) of Sweet Home, on the birth of an 8 pound boy, born August 8th, at Langmacks hospital.

Don May of Corbett was a caller Sunday at the Harold Mason home.

Mrs. Minnie Personette, former resident, is a guest at the Floyd Sheppard home.

Mrs. Ruth Witt spent Sunday visiting old friends in McMinnville, and on Wednesday motored to Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Roten of Mehama, entertained at dinner Sunday, honoring Mrs. Minnie Personette. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sheppard, Bill Sheppard and Wilma Jull, all of Mill City.

in Lebanon, Oregon. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gabriel of Sweet Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Burley Coffey of Idanha have moved to Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carr and 17-month-old son, of Salem, escaped serious injuries when their car left the highway and went into a ditch east of Marion Forks about 2:30 a. m. Monday morning. Apparently Mr. Carr went to sleep at the wheel. A passing logging truck pulled the car from the ditch. The trailer on the car was completely demolished.

Mrs. Otto Russell who has been ill with strep throat, is well on the road to recovery.

New GENERAL "JUMBO 14"

ANOTHER GENERAL TIRE EXCLUSIVE

ULTRA LOW PRESSURE TIRE

ONLY 14 LBS. PRESSURE

New Luxury Ride for FORDS and CHEVROLETS

It's an entirely new kind of a tire. New in design, from its wide base at the rim, straight through the extra strong sidewalls that taper, like the sides of a triangle, to the conventional width tread. There's so little air pressure, it's hard to think of a situation that could cause a blowout. And the combination of low pressure plus great strength of body—82% greater strength than ordinary tires—makes the new Jumbo extremely difficult to puncture. Drive in today for the ride of your life on the tires that could save your life in an emergency!
