

LYONS

By Eva Bressler

John Jungwirth is confined to his home with a broken leg that he received Saturday forenoon when he fell from the roof of his house. Jungwirth, who was painting his roof, slipped and fell, landing on cement instead of the ground. His leg is fractured near the heel.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Downing, Irean and Mariene from Sutherlin, visited over the weekend at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing. While here they attended the softball tournament in Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Monroe and Mrs. Emma Monroe of Albany were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Ina Stockwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Osley of Couerick, Iowa, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Rogers on McCully Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cruson from Ashland, have moved into the Russell Wilson home across the highway from the Sporting Goods store.

Mrs. Hazel Lewis with Mrs. Lola Osburn, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, attended the Rebekah convention held at Lakeview, Oregon. They also visited lodges at Creswell, Kirby, Klamath Falls, Merrill, Bananza and Paisley. Mrs. Lewis, who is a member of Faith Rebekah Lodge in Lyons, is chaplain of the Rebekah Assembly.

A good crowd attended the social meeting of the Santiam Valley grange held jointly with the Farmers Union at the grange hall, Friday evening. Jerry Coffman, lecturer for the grange, presented Ray Stout, who showed pictures and talked on his work and tour while in Greece. At the close of the evening, a pot luck lunch was served.

Considerable excitement was caused in Lyons Monday afternoon at the Pete Rodchi home, when smoke came rolling out of their house, but with the aid of the neighbors who was able to enter the house soon brought it to an end, when they discovered a kettle of meat which was left cooking on the stove, had burned up.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bassett and Cecil were Sunday visitors at the Paul Johnston home at Culver, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bridges visited Sunday evening with his mother, Mrs. Clara Lee in Eugene. Mrs. Lee, who has been seriously ill, was reported slightly improved.

The annual dinner and bazaar sponsored by the Altar Society of the St. Patrick Catholic church, was held Sunday at the Mari-Linn school with approximately 400 attending the dinner.

The ice cream social sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service was held Thursday evening in the lovely gardens at the Glen Julian home in Fox Valley. An enjoyable evening was spent in spite of the cool weather and ice cream, cake, pie, coffee and punch served to those calling. The Julians have a beautiful display of fuschias and tuberous begonias.

Allen and Myra Hadley are visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clippell. The two children are from the New Tribes Mission Institute at Fouths Springs, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Steele and family moved this week to Eugene. Steele, who has been with the Puget Timber company here, was transferred to work for the company in Eugene.

Mrs. Alwood Aronson and sons, Ray and Paul, have gone to Duluth, Minnesota, where they will spend a month visiting with relatives.

Kenny and Jimmie Orr from Seattle, Washington, are spending some time at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hartnell.

Mrs. Delma Barrington from Austin, Texas, visited Wednesday and Thursday at the home of her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnston. Mrs. Barrington will be remembered as Delma Grimes who left here about 36 years ago. She also called on Mrs. Alex Bodeker and Mrs. Clyde Bressler, old school mates.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Berry have moved to Britwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kerr moved to Cherryville. The two men will be employed as truck drivers for Hugh Johnston who has a contract with the Nuxall Logging company near Rhododendron.

Pay Dirt!

The old time prospector loaded his burro, rounded up his rations, took along his pan and off he went into the mountains looking for his fortune. Sometimes a 'strike' was made, but more often the only gain was a good deal of exercise. Nowadays we know that fortunes are earned by planning carefully rather than by just plain hoping. Thrifty, farsighted people use the tested system of regular savings—ten percent of earnings. Be a modern prospector. Come in today.
