

DETROIT

By Boots Champion

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Seitzinger of Cascade Locks, were holiday visitors in Idanha and Detroit. The Seitzingers were former residents of Idanha and still have their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ray and children, Pamie, Sherry and Gregory, returned to their home in Renton, Wash., after spending a week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray of Idanha. Richard is the Ray's youngest son. On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sullivan of Bend, who were Thursday night guests at the Ray home, motored to Neah Bay, Wash., where they will be holiday guests at the home of another son and his family, the M. D. Rays, who own the sport fishing resort at Neah Bay. Earl Lady, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lady of Idanha, who is in the navy and stationed at Norfolk, Virginia, arrived home last week on a week's furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Crawford of the Dalles, were callers in Idanha and Detroit. Mr. Crawford, an army survey engineer, and his wife, resided at Mongold about two years ago.

Johnny Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Len Davis of Idanha, is spending a few days at the home of Gladys Carey, a long time family friend, in Tacoma, Wash. Johnny, who is attending Normal School at Monmouth, Ore., will leave here September 15 for the fall term.

Sunday visitors at the Len Davis home were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mostul and children Lila and Tommy, of Oregon City. Mr. Mostul is Mrs. Davis' brother. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Lynch of Bend. While here they drove to Elk Lake to pick huckleberries. They were joined later in the day by the Davises.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Beason of Eugene spent the holidays at their cabin here.

Don Brotherton of Lyons, C. I. O. district representative, was a business caller in Idanha and Detroit on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hines of Silverton, are the new restaurant operators at the Spillway in Idanha, succeeding Mrs. John Dallaire.

The Detroit Market's application for a class B package license, approved by the city council a few weeks ago, was approved by the liquor commission. The license went into effect last week.

District ranger S. T. Moore, will be host at a meeting of the girl scouts, Detroit-Idanha area, when the group visits the Detroit Ranger Station on Thursday, September 10. Moore will speak on several aspects of the forester's job, such as reforestation, fire-protection and conservation.

The Detroit Church of Christ will hold a Sunday school picnic Sunday, September 13th at Humbug camp grounds after the morning church service. The no-host fare will be served to the picnickers. All are invited.

Miss Maude Durfee of Salem was selected as substitute teacher for Mrs. Evelyn Gearhart, announces O. J.

3—THE MILL CITY ENTERPRISE THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1953

White, school superintendent. Mrs. Gearhart, who is high school librarian and English teacher, suffered an injury to her shoulder this summer and is in Portland recuperating.

Amos Gerig of Lebanon, was high bidder on the two remaining apartment buildings at Mongold and the Summer Line construction company of Silverton, highest bidder on the electrical salvage.

The two gray apartment houses perched forlornly on the shore of the lake, are now being torn down, thusly bringing to an end the once bustling community of Mongold that housed government workers at the Detroit dam. The last families to move from the apartments early this summer were the Ed Holmes', who bought property at Gates. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stafford and daughter Billy moved into the house recently vacated by the John Meals family between Gates and Mill City. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brown moved to Gates, and Elvin Childers, to Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Beck to Oswego, Oregon. These neighbors will be greatly missed in this area.

Holiday visitors at the Marion Kite home were Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hubbard and daughter Shirley of Seattle, Wash. Mr. Hubbard is a brother of Mrs. Kite. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. Kuebler and daughter Sherry of Canby, Ore. Mrs. Kuebler and Mrs. Kite are sisters.

Visiting at the Earl Layman home were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Freeman and children Ritchie and Marcia, of Portland, also Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wirt of Clatskanie, Oregon. The Wirt's were former residents of Detroit.

With the opening of deer season just around the corner, October 3rd, local hunters are getting enthusiastic in a buck contest. So here's your chance, all you nimrods. The Cedar tavern is now at your service for registration and later a weigh-in station. All you have to do to enter the contest is plunk down a dollar at registration, the required fee. So step up, fellas, one big buck can lead to a lot of bucks in this contest. And a buck's a buck in any man's language. Winner take's all.

Mrs. Hilma Dickie, who has been visiting the Earnest Smiths at Lyle, Wash., was called to the home of H. G. Whites in Eugene, to care for Mrs. White, who suffered a broken shoulder blade in a fall.

More than 5,000 teachers attending the Oregon Education Association's Spring meeting in Portland voted to work with the Lifesavers organization to change the public attitude toward driving.

Not by

A very wise Teacher of the long ago once said, "Man cannot live by bread alone." There are hungerers of the mind and soul that things material can never satisfy.

Sometimes they come in the form of trials and sorrows. Sometimes they are aspirations that bid us soar to heights we have never dared attempt. Howsoever they appear, they often go unmet because we fail to understand their nature.

The lovely little refugee in the picture is passing through an agony of heart. But she seems to have learned a great secret: that the only source of power adequate for her needs is GOD! And she is looking to Him.

Yes, God and God alone is the answer to the deepest needs that man can know. As we give our best to Him, He gives His best to us! And the God-directed life finds a satisfaction and a joy that can come from no other source.

That God and the individual may be brought together in vital relationship is the purpose of the Church.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
