Women's Club Holds Reception For Teachers Tuesday Evening

The Mill City teachers were the guests of the Mill City Women's club at their first meeting of the fall held in Friendship Hall, Tuesday evening. Mrs. John Muir, president, was in charge of a short program. The teachers were introduced by Vernon S. Todd, superintendent, and Howard L. Means, principal of the high school. Mrs. W. D. Hoeye played several piano numbers. An amusing "quiz program" in which the men teachers were the contestants was followed by group singing.

Mrs. Muir announced her officers and standing committees for the year: president, Mrs. John Muir; first vice president, Mrs. Lester Hathaway; second vice-president, Mrs. Charles Kelly; recording secretary, Mrs. Vernon Todd; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lee Knowles; and treasurer, Miss Daisy Geddes. The standing committees: finance committee: Mrs. Curtis Cline, Mrs. W. W. Allen and Mrs. Harry Mason; program committee: Mrs. Curtis Cline, Mrs. John Baldwin and Mrs. Floyd Jones; civic committee, Mrs. M. G. Rambo; chairman; music, Mrs. Don Sheythe; legislative, Mrs. Martin Hansen; and youth, Mrs. Jess Lee and Mrs. Vernon Todd.

In addition to the teachers, guests for the evening included husbands of club members and Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Jull, Mrs. Don Moffatt and Mrs. Pearl Eide. Refreshment committee was Mrs. Jess Lee and Mrs. W. C. Stewart, jr.

MARLENE TICKLE TO BE BRIDE OF JERROLD HUNTER IN OCTOBER CEREMONY

Mr. and Mrs. William Tickle announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Marlene, to Jerrold T. Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hunter of this city.

Invitations to the wedding which will be held in early October, are being sent to relatives and friends. Miss Tickle graduated in 1951 from the Mill City high school and since has been employed in the payroll department of the Detroit Dam. Her fiancée graduated from the Mill City high school in 1949 and has served two years in the service, returning recently from Korea.

Faith Rebekah Lodge Opens After Summer Recess

Faith Rebekah Lodge held their first fall meeting Wednesday evening after a vacation through July and August, with Garnett Bassett, vice-grand, acting as noble grand, due to the absence of Jean Roberts. The regular routine of business was carried out, with various plans discussed for the coming months. Hazel Lewis gave an interesting report of her visitation to the convention at Klamath Falls and visits to other lodges, with Lola Osburn, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon. Hazel is chaplain of the Assembly.

Mrs. Harry Mason entertained at dinner last Friday honoring her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buschman of Boulder, Colorado. During the evening Mr. Buschman showed pictures. Invited guests included Mrs. Ida Geddes, Miss Daisy Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cline, Mrs. J. F. Potter and Mrs. W. W. Allen. Mr. and Mrs. Buschman left on Sunday for Boulder where Mr. Buschman attends the University of Colorado.

Marilyn O.E.S. Has Potluck Mon.

Marilyn Chapter No. 145, O.E.S., resumed their fall meetings Monday evening, starting with a potluck dinner at 6:30, which was followed by the meeting at 8 o'clock, with Laurel Johnson, worthy matron, presiding.

Visitors for the evening included Lowell Shinn, worthy patron, of Ainsworth chapter, Salem; Clara Epperson, Bridge of the Gods chapter, at Stevenson; Mona Reed, Kelso chapter, Kelso, Wash.; and about thirty members from Ainsworth chapter, Salem, Sweet Home chapter at Sweet Home, and Naomi chapter of Dallas.

The altar was draped for a past grand patron of the state of Oregon. Degrees were conferred upon Viola Hirte, Marie Stoner, Opal McRoberts, W. B. Hirte and Kenneth Neilson. Cleo Neilson acted as courtesy candidate.

Lois Scott presented Marie Stoner with an Eastern Star Bible which had belonged to her grandmother. Mona Reed came from Kelso for the initiation of her sister-in-law, Opal McRoberts.

Refreshment committee included Louise Palmer, Maude Clark, Mary Gulliford and Florence Harris.

Tina Graham decorated the chapter rooms, using "an old fashioned garden" as her theme.

PRESBYTERIAN YOUTH FELLOWSHIP WILL START MEETINGS NEXT SUNDAY

The Youth Fellowship group of the Presbyterian church will begin their fall meetings next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock.

As an introduction to the resuming of meetings, a social evening will be held on Friday. The young people are to meet at the manse at five, where a picnic will be held in the yard and later they will go skating.
