

Mill City Hi-Lites

Yvonne Dart
There are four new students who started Monday, September 21. Three of the students were freshman and the fourth was a sophomore. This makes a total of 108 students in the high school now.

Monday during Activity period, the

G. A. A. had a meeting to elect officers. The officers are: president, Donna Ellingson; vice-president, Gerry Hamblin; secretary, Jan Ross; treasurer, Phyllis Provost; and sergeant-at-arms, Dorothy Stienfelt. The other business was discussing the pep uniforms for the freshmen and the new students. The uniforms, the same as last year, are to be yellow Columbia knit sweaters, white dickies, green four-gored skirts, and the yellow and green hats.

Tuesday during Activity period, the Lettermen's Club had a meeting to elect officers. The officers they elected are: president, Richard Verbeck; vice-president, Jack Melting; secretary-treasurer, Brooks Crosier.

The football game, this week, will be at Gervais. It is on Friday, September 25 at 2 p. m.

The Junior class looked at class rings Tuesday and picked out the rings they wanted. Some ordered rings with sets in them and some did not. They should be received about the first of December.

A. J. Evanger and C. H. Evanson, both of Camas, Washington, stopped off at The Enterprise office Friday, for a short visit with the Moffatts and Mrs. Eide, while enroute to Salem.

Santiam Rebekahs To Initiate New Members At October Meeting

The Santiam Rebekah lodge held their regular meeting, Wednesday, September 16, with Mrs. Antonia Thomas, noble grand, presiding.

Rachel Olmstead, deputy marshal, and Julia Bassett, district deputy, installed Ida Fleetwood, left supporter to the noble grand, and Esther Stafford, outside guardian. They have been appointed to fill vacated offices.

The drill team held practice in preparation for the initiatory work which is to be given at the October 21 meeting. The refreshment committee for the evening was Mabel Bruder, Anna Crook, Ida Carey and Ada Dart.

OPEN AIR DANCE AT IDANHA DRAWS LARGE CROWD FRIDAY

DETROIT—The open air dance, sponsored by the Idanha Super Service, held Friday night on the concrete apron at the station, attracted an audience of about 250.

The Super Service, featuring two major prizes, a Remington Rifle and a Dorneyer electric food mixer to be given away, was the center attraction. A special feature in free advertising was the contributions of prizes donated by local and valley merchants. These prizes were awarded on a free ticket given to all who attended.

The rifle and electric food mixer awards were won on coupons given when purchases were made at the station, over a period of several weeks. Dance music was furnished by Mrs. Tom Absher, pianist, accompanied by drummer George Brasmer. Jack Hase-man of Idanha was master of ceremonies.

Coffee and hot dogs were available at an American Legion auxiliary post No. 141, stand nearby. Mrs. Buck Storey reports they netted $20. Proceeds will go into the Legion fund.

Winner of the 30-06 Remington rifle was M. L. Rudy, Sr., of Idanha. Dude Renner of Detroit was awarded the electric food mixer.

Proprietors of the Idanha Super Service are Don and Elsie Lloyd. Mr. Lloyd stated because of public interest created and for advertising purposes he hoped the affair could be repeated in the near future.

DETROIT

By Boots Champion

On the third Sunday of each month from now, until Christmas, the Detroit Church of Christ will hold an evening service of special programs. The first service was a youth meeting held Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. in which plans were made to obtain talent from the Northwest Christian College at Eugene.

A group of teachers from the Idanha Community Church, went to Portland on Wednesday, a week ago, to select new material for Sunday School classes. Those making the trip were Mrs. Walter Reynolds, Mrs. Henry Heibert, Mrs. James McKinney, and Mrs. Robert Unger, wife of the pastor. They were accompanied by young Dennis McKinney, who visited his doctor for a checkup on a recent ear operation.

On Sunday, September 27th, the quarterly convention of the Eastern Division of the Marion County Sunday School association, will meet for a no-host dinner at the Detroit Lakeshore Forest camp following morning services at the respective churches.

An error was made in last week's issue. Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman of Sweet Home did not purchase the Spillway Cafe in Idanha, they are operating the cafe in conjunction with the tavern. Owners of the Spillway are Mr. and Mrs. Marion Alderman and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carter.

Idanha has done it again. The community became the first town in Oregon to meet its 1953 Community Chest quota, announces Marion County Community Chest officials, of which C. A. Kells of Salem is director. Idanha holds the distinction of being first in the state to fill their quota for several years. The town's quota was $500 which was subscribed the first two days of the drive. Co-chairmen in its solicitations were Warren A. Stoll, Huber Ray, T. J. Skidmore and Florence Harris. Salutations to Idanha!

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scheffer and their niece, Catherine Kelly of Tacoma, Wash., were Thursday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gudne Geston in Idanha.

A well-child health immunization will be held the third Thursday monthly from 10 to 12 o'clock at the Detroit elementary school. A well-child conference will be held the fourth Tuesday from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. at the Mill City elementary school through the months of October, December, February, April, June and August. For appointments call Mrs. R. Hase-man of Idanha.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Fagan and Martin McCann of Detroit, motored to the Costello Ranch at Gateway Saturday, returning home Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Dora Wiggington and Betty Baine of Madras, enroute to the ranch. Betty Blaine formerly resided at Detroit.

Friday's afternoon football game between Detroit and the Oregon School for the Deaf, ended a little bit disastrously for the Detroit team. The score was 48 to 6 in favor of the Oregon School for the Deaf.

The game was played on Detroit's new field and it was Detroit's first game. The boys are new at this game but with a little more time and practice, they will come through all right.

Mrs. Florence Dorothy, who had been visiting with friends in Albany and Mill City, stopped for a short visit at the Harold Champion home on Wednesday of last week, enroute to her home at Post. Mrs. Dorothy stated that her daughter, Mrs. Joe Shas-setz, formerly Jean Dorothy, of Sheridan, Wyoming, is the proud mother of a 6 lb. 3 oz. baby girl, named Anna Joe, born on June 29th at the Sheridan hospital. Jean attended school at Detroit and Mill City, having moved from that city to Wyoming about five years ago, with her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dorothy, who now reside at Post.

Mrs. Anna Stevens, who has been seriously ill, was released last week from the Matson hospital in Milwaukee, Ore., and is at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marcum in Portland. Mrs. Stevens will have to return to the hospital occasionally for treatment of severe asthma and bronchitis.

Visiting with the Otto Russells last week was Mrs. Russell's niece and nephew, Evie and Eddia Nelson of Los Angeles. The Russells moved last week into the John Cook home, just completed.

Friendship Circle Meets At D. B. Hill Home Tuesday

The sale of Christmas cards and wrappings will be a fall project of the Friendship Circle, it was decided at the regular meeting held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. D. B. Hill.

Mrs. Ed Yarnell, president, appointed Mrs. D. B. Hill chairman of the sale which will be held in the lobby of the Mill City State Bank during the month of November and the first week in December. Cards with printed names will not be sold this year.

It was unanimously agreed to continue the contributions to Care for Korea which was a project of the Circle last year. An interesting letter was read from Wales, Alaska, expressing in quaint language, appreciation for the baby layette sent to the baby hospital for Eskimos located there.

The program for the evening consisted of a book review, "Cry, the Beloved Country", by Mrs. Vernon S. Todd, and a discussion of the organization of a Circle and possible program plans for the coming year by Mrs. Herbert Schroeder.

Those present were Mesdames Gerald Anderson, Noble Streeter, Melbourne Rambo, Clayton Baltimore, Howard Means, Louis Slatton, Ed Yarnell, Vernon Todd, Martin Kelly, Herbert Schroeder, W. D. Hoye and the hostess, Mrs. D. B. Hill.

worry and indifference

OVERANXIETY, particularly about health, is a disease in itself. Physicians call it hypochondria. Those who "enjoy" ill health only make themselves and those about them miserable.

Opposed to chronic worry is complete indifference, to the point of disregard of common-sense health rules and contempt for medical care.

Between these two absurd extremes lies the sane middle road. Petty, transient discomforts need not cause grave concern and frequent trips to the doctor. When symptoms persist or recur with annoying frequency, it is then time to seek professional assistance. Indifference under these circumstances only invites more serious trouble.
