Missionaries To Be Guest Speakers This Fall

A playlet entitled, "Together we seek to be Builders of Personality" was presented for the program of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church at their meeting held Wednesday afternoon of last week in Fellowship Hall.

Taking part in the play were Rev. Noble Streeter as the judge; Mrs. Mel Robinson, clerk; Mrs. Noble Streeter, and Mrs. Floyd Jones, the jury; and Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. Roy Epperson and Mrs. Ralph Fough, the accused.

Plans were made for entertaining the guest speakers who are coming to the church this fall, during the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. James Swan. Both a tea and a dinner are planned for the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Denman who are missionaries from Mexico, who are partially supported by the Mill City church. They will be in Mill City from October 8 to 12.

Mrs. Perry Hanson, one of the last missionaries out of China, is scheduled for October 22. She will be remembered as Irene Foresythe who was here several times before the war and was very popular as a speaker.

Miss Eleanor Ewing of San Francisco will be a guest of the church on November 10, and Dr. John Furnas will be here, December 9.

Mill City Garden Club To Have Work Day Oct. 10

The Mill City Garden Club is planning a work day for October 10, in the Rebekah lodge hall.

Mrs. Wanda Edlund, Scotts Mills, corsage chairman of Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs, will be here to demonstrate all the lovely materials available for this fascinating hobby. She has asked all those attending this meeting to bring any flowers or dry material they want to use and she will show how to make it.

Mrs. Edlund will also have many nice items for holiday decorations on display and for sale.

"Glow Candles" will also be demonstrated by a capable teacher who has made these beautiful candles in many shapes and colors for use in the home and patio.

Members of the local club in bringing these Federated club workers to the community, feel there are many interested persons who would enjoy their work day and are extending an invitation to them to attend and take part in the work.

This is an all day meeting. Bring a sack lunch and coffee will be served. Classes start at 10 a. m.

Mill City and Gates high school girls are especially welcome.

Marilyn Assembly Rainbow Order Holds Meeting

The newly instituted Marilyn Assembly, Order of Rainbow Girls, held their first meeting Wednesday evening of last week at the I. O. O. F. hall with Jerry Hamblin, worthy advisor, presiding.

O. K. Hirtle, worshipful master of Masonic lodge No. 180, and George Huffman, worthy patron of Marilyn chapter, O. E. S., were introduced and escorted.

In preparation for the visit of the Worthy Grand Advisor, Mildred Patton, the evening was spent in practice. Miss Patton from Burns is a student at Oregon State College where she is a sorority sister of Lela Kelly of Mill City, who is a member of Marilyn Assembly. Both girls belong to Delta Gamma sorority.

A special meeting will be held Saturday, October 24, to exemplify all the work for the inspection of the Worthy Grand Advisor. Mrs. Sue Tuel, district grand deputy, from Brownsville, will also attend this meeting.

Plans were made for a cooked food sale to be held at ten o'clock Saturday, October 10, in the former coffee shop, next to the Variety Store. The proceeds of the sale are to be used for the Worthy Grand Advisor's project, to purchase surgical tables for the Eastern Star home.

Additional guests for the evening were Don Miley of Gates, Mrs. George Huffman of Lyons and Mrs. Lyle Gould of Mill City.

Refreshments were served by the mother advisor, Mrs. W. B. Shuey.

He leaned the gun while crossing a fence, his widow thought he had better sense.

Garden Club Demonstrates Flower Show at Thursday Night Meeting at Kimmels

An interesting demonstration of flower show practice made up the program of the Mill City Garden Club at their regular monthly meeting held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Kimmel.

Mrs. Charles Dolezal and Mrs. Curtis Cline demonstrated their explanation of flower show practice with flowers, various containers and arrangements. There was informal discussion.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Bert Morris, president, there was discussion of the public dinner to be given by the Garden Club Saturday evening, October 17, in the I. O. O. F. hall.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Charles Dolezal, Mrs. Ernest Podrabsky and Mrs. Kimmel.

"Humor" Is Toastmistress Club Theme Thursday

"Humor" was the theme presented by the topic mistress, Mrs. Howard Means, and the members responded with anecdotes at the regular Mill City Toastmistress meeting at the Bank Cafe, Thursday evening. Mrs. Floyd Jones presided and Mrs. Vernon Todd was toastmistress.

A varied group of topics was presented by the three speakers. "Don't Let Yourself Go" was the title of Mrs. Gale Lowery's speech which dealt with hobbies. She displayed some of her own oil paintings to illustrate her speech. Mrs. Ed Yarnell spoke on "Far Away Places" and Mrs. Floyd Jones, "The Amateur Chairman." Critics for the speakers were Mrs. A. E. Nesbitt, Mrs. D. W. Stewart, and Mrs. Vincent Palmer. Mrs. Don Miley was evaluator for the evening's program.

The meeting was opened with the invocation by Mrs. Kenneth Crosier. "The Aims of Toastmistress" was presented by the education chairman, Mrs. Arthur LeCours. Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson was timer.

Guests for the evening included Miss Kathryn Hart and Mrs. Lowell Fleetwood of Mill City; Mrs. Orville Downing of Lyons; and Mrs. Glenn Gordon, Mrs. Jack Brown, and Mrs. William Pennick of Gates.

Junior-Teens Group of Christian Church Meets

A newly organized group for young people, the Junior-Teens, held their first meeting last Thursday evening at seven o'clock in the basement of the Christian church.

The Junior-Teens which is open to all seventh and eighth graders, is similar to the Kings-Teens group of high school young people, which has been meeting for several years in Mill City. They are well organized for the year, having had three meetings before school started. The Kings-Teens meet each Monday evening at 7:30 at the home of Glen Shelton. Mr. Shelton and Miss Alice Smith are co-leaders of both groups.

The program that is followed by both groups is the same. The evening opens with games, followed by group singing, the Bible lesson and refreshments.

Willamette Presbyterial Attended By Local Group

The all day meeting of Willamette Presbyterial which met at Redmond last Friday was well attended by members of the Womens Association of the Mill City Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Lester Hathaway is secretary of literature for the Presbyterial and Mrs. Herbert Schroeder is secretary of Christian Education.

In addition to Mrs. Hathaway and Mrs. Schroeder, those attending from Mill City were Mrs. Ida Geddes, Miss Daisy Geddes, Mrs. Ralph Fough, Mrs. Noble Streeter, Mrs. A. F. Catherwood, Mrs. Cora Goodman, Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood, Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. Fred Grimes and Mrs. Otto Witt.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Toman, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Veteto and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Toman of Stayton, attended the community dinner at Jordan last Sunday. Another Mill City group at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Stiffler, Wayne and Neil, and his mother, Mrs. Victoria Stiffler of Salem.

Eileen Eccleston and James Goetzinger Married In Candlelight Ceremony

GATES—At a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening, September 12, Miss Eileen Eccleston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eccleston, of Gates, became the bride of James Goetzinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Goetzinger, of Moorcroft, Wyo.

Dr. Victor H. Sword read the lines of the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with pale lavender and white gladiolus, at the First Congregational church in Salem. The wedding music was furnished by the church organist, Mrs. Rich. Virgil Mason sang, "I'll Walk Beside You" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white ballerina gown of nylon over satin. The short veil of nylon net was held in place by a band of seed pearls. For her flowers she carried white carnations on a white Bible, with satin streamers, knotted with pink rosebuds.

The maid of honor, Miss Wanda Chapman, wore a ballerina length formal of pink marquisette over pink taffeta, with head-dress to match. She carried a nosegay of variegated sweet-peas and rose buds. Rodney Bright was best man. Ushers were Robert Toepfer and Ernest Leffler.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Cutting the bride's cake was Mrs. Ray McCray of Portland, aunt of the bride. Miss Esther Murphy presided at the coffee urn and Miss Doris Koenig passed the guest book. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Joyce Gorton and Miss Eva Anderson.

For her going away the bride chose a navy blue suit with red accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. Following a short honeymoon trip the couple are at home at 1645 Winnona Court, Salem.

Bridal Shower Tuesday for Miss Marlene Tickle

Miss Marlene Tickle, bride-elect of Gerald Hunter, was the honor guest at a miscellaneous bridal shower given at the home of Mrs. Bessie Vandermeer, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Vandermeer and her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Richards, were co-hostesses for Miss Tickle, whose wedding is to be an event of October 10.

Refreshments were served at the end of an evening of appropriate games. Invited guests included Mesdames Jack McClintock, Farrell Ball, William Tickle, Russell Brown, James Grant, Richard Boedigheimer, Leo Poole, Sonny Nelson, Don Bengston, Frank Hunter, Bill Hunter, Darrell Hinz, and Louis Verbeck and Misses Alona Daley, Dolores Poole, Pat Brown, Lela Kelly, Joanne Hoffman, Frances Brunner, Wilma Jull and Donna Bengston.

A pleasant part about publishing a weekly newspaper is the justified criticism people do not make when involved in a mistake or blunder in the news.

LITTLE ILLS MAKE BIG BILLS!

• True, that "little illness" you've been mentioning in an offhand way, may not seem to amount to much—just a few faint symptoms. But, neglected, these "little ills" can lead to big bills for doctors, medicines, etc; not to mention needless suffering and loss of precious time. Consult a Doctor now—you'll save by it in the end. And, of course, we hope you'll bring his prescription to us for careful compounding.
