6% NITROGEN
10% PHOSPHORIC ACID
4% POTASH

Golden Harvest provides your grass and plants a complete fertilizer to maintain productiveness and to prevent robbing the soil of the three major elements essential to growth.

Lawns and gardens draw heavily on the soil for plant food—even more heavily than do commercial crops. They should be fed a little at a time . . . but often.

Maintain luxuriant growth throughout the year with

Marilyn Baltzer and Donald Kuiken Married Saturday Evening

LYONS—The Lyons Methodist church was the setting for the wedding Saturday evening at 6 o'clock when Miss Marilyn Baltzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Baltzer became the bride of Donald Kuiken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elva Kuiken.

Rev. Harold E. Sheriff read the ceremony before a setting of pastel shades of glads and pink and white asters, to immediate relatives. Mrs. L. D. Walker played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue fleck fall suit with a lavender throated white orchid. Her only attendant was Miss Joy Kuiken, sister of the groom, who was attired in a lavender fleck fall suit with pink and white corsage. Harvie Grimes stood up with Mr. Kuiken as best man.

For her daughters' wedding Mrs. Baltzer chose a dark colored suit, with pink accessories and pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Kuiken wore a dusty rose colored afternoon dress with black accessories and white carnation corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the brides' parents at 7 o'clock where many friends called to congratulate the young couple. The all white bride's table was centered with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake.

Cutting the cake and serving the punch were Miss Joy Kuiken and Mrs. Harvey Grimes, sisters of the groom.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will spend a few days

LYONS

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Rogers have as their guests Phillip Piester, and Earl Weist from The Dalles.

William Fetherston returned to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sinclair in Roseburg, after spending several days at the home of his niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kuiken were host and hostess for a buffet dinner at their home last Wednesday evening, honoring Donald Kuiken and his fiancée Miss Marilyn Baltzer. Guests were Donald Kuiken, Marilyn Baltzer, Mrs. Elva Kuiken and Kathleen, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grimes and Norma Jean, all of Lyons, and Miss Irene Kuiken of Salem, and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kuiken.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Sam Culwell were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Culwell and Larry Allen from Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Culwell, Delmer and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Culwell, Joyce, Thelma, Shirley and Andy from Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Short of Salem. Monday evening Mrs. Sam Culwell left for Ardmore, Oklahoma where she will spend some time with relatives.

C. A. Bruders Entertain In Honor of California Guest

Mrs. Merle Waring of San Francisco has been a guest of her brother, C. A. Bruder, for the past two weeks. Mrs. Waring is a former Salem resident who moved to San Francisco thirty years ago. This is her first visit to Mill City in twenty years and she was very interested in all the changes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruder and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cline took Mrs. Waring on many motor trips while she was here. Among the various places they visited were the Detroit dam, Peterson's Rock Gardens, and the McKenzie Pass.

Last Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Bruder and Mrs. Waring went to Portland and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bruder. Mrs. Waring left for San Francisco from Portland Friday.

During the visit of Mrs. Waring the Bruders had a family gathering at their home. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rodgers of Stayton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Johnson and family of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. William Bruder and family of Portland, Nancy and Claudia Bruder. The entire family was home for the day except the Gordon Bruder family who live in Georgia.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR GARDEN CLUB WORK SHOP

Plans are completed for the Garden Club Workshop to be held in the Rebekah hall next Saturday, October 10, beginning at 10 a. m.

There will be instructors from the Oregon State Federation of Garden clubs to hold classes in corsage making, decorations, and making of candles.

The public is invited to come and learn to do these interesting things. There will be many kinds of materials on display and for sale.

Those attending are asked to bring a sack lunch. Members of the Mill City Garden club will furnish hot coffee. It is also asked that flowers for corsage making be brought.

GARDEN CLUB HAM DINNER TO BE HELD OCTOBER 17th

Tickets will be on sale this week end for the ham dinner being sponsored by the Mill City Garden club Saturday, October 17. Serving will be at the Oddfellow hall from 5:30 to 7:30.

This will be the first public dinner given by the local group which is a civic organization, using its funds for local projects.

Mrs. W. W. Allen Leaves For Trip to Honolulu

Mrs. W. W. Allen leaves Salem this morning on the Shasta Daylight for San Francisco and plans to fly to Honolulu on Saturday. While in San Francisco Mrs. Allen will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Olsen.

Mrs. Allen will spend about two months in Hawaii as the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen. She will be there during Aloha Week, which is the outstanding Hawaiian festival of the year, held each October.

While in Honolulu Mrs. Allen plans to see Mr. and Mrs. William Wachter and his son. Mr. Wachter is a former resident of Mill City, graduating from high school here. He is now head of the engineering department of the University of Hawaii.

Mrs. Allen will return home early in December, sailing from Honolulu on the Lurline on November 24 and arriving in San Francisco the 30th.

Mrs. D. B. Hill entertained a group of friends last Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Allen. She was presented with a gift. The centerpiece for the refreshment tables cleverly featured aeroplanes.

Salem Lady Entertains Mill City Ladies Wednesday

Mrs. Ed Rupp of Salem entertained members of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church at a no-host luncheon at her home Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Rupp is a former resident of Mill City.

The Mill City Ladies attending the luncheon were Mesdames Fred Grimes, Herbert Schroeder, James Swan, Floyd Fleetwood, W. B. Shuey, Fred Duffy, W. W. Allen, Verne Clark, Ida Geddes and Miss Daisy Geddis.

Miss Georgia Shane of Salem, who formerly lived in Mill City and in formerly lived in Mill City and in Gates was also present.

Women's Council Holds Meeting Wednesday P. M.

At a meeting of the Woman's Council of the Christian Church held Wednesday afternoon of last week in the church basement, plans were made for the cooked food sale, bazaar and noon luncheon which will be held October 11.

Mrs. Elmer Shaw, president, appointed the following committee chairmen: kitchen, Mrs. Frank Caraway; dining room, Mrs. William Minsner; bazaar, Mrs. Ike Meyers; and cooked food, Mrs. C. A. Bruder.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott left Friday night for the area east of Bend hunting. They got their deer Saturday morning and returned here Sunday. Mrs. Scott stated it was so cold there Friday night that the water bags on the front of the pickup froze solid.

LITTLE ILLS MAKE BIG BILLS!

● True, that "little illness" you've been mentioning in an offhand way, may not seem to amount to much—just a few faint symptoms. But, neglected, these "little ills" can lead to big bills for doctors, medicines, etc.; not to mention needless suffering and loss of precious time. Consult a Doctor now—you'll save by it in the end. And, of course, we hope you'll bring his prescription to us for careful compounding.
