--Mill Ends--

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hill, of Salem, were weekend guests of his sister, Mrs. Elsie Potter.

Mrs. Cora Goodman has gone to Portland, where she expects to spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams from Waldport, were visiting the John Angelseys a few days this past week.

Lela Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly, was home from Oregon State for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hill and family spent the weekend on the coast. While there Bob caught a silverside in the Alsea river.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill were in Portland Saturday where Mr. Hill attended the Oregon Banker's convention.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Whitsett and family spent the weekend in North Bonneville, Washington where they visited his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thielke spent several days in La Grande last week on business. They went on to Emmett, Idaho to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thielke.

Mrs. Frank Jackson and Mrs. John Swan were in Salem Sunday attending a Silver Tea at Bush House and dinner at Senator hotel.

Guests at the C. E. Mason and Carl Kelly homes this weekend were Mrs. W. W. Mason, Mrs. Arthur Mason and Marty and Catherine of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Frances Chapin of Brownsville has been visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nesbitt.

Another family group at the Oregon-Washington game were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crosier and Zita and Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ausland and family of Harrisburg, spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting in Mill City. They visited at the George Veteto and Lowell Stiffler homes.

Mrs. Gladys Trask of Santa Clara, California came Sunday and is visiting her brother, D. B. Hill and her sister, Mrs. Elsie Potter. She will be here several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett spent art of last week hunting in Eastern Oregon without getting a deer. Saturday Mr. Bassett succeeded in getting his buck right near Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett and son, Maurice and daughter, Rosalie motored to Salem where they helped Mrs. Bassett's father, R. C. Shepard celebrate his birthday.

Lou Wirfs of McMinnville and Rudy Tohl of this city left Saturday for Summer Lake and returned Monday reporting good luck on their hunting expedition. Mrs. Wirfs spent the weekend with Mrs. Ruth Witt.

A photographer was at the local schools on Wednesday where he took individual pictures of the students. These can be secured by the students as individual pictures or as compiled pictures of their room or class.

The Woman's Council of the Christian church will meet Wednesday, October 28, at the home of the president, Mrs. Maggie Shaw. Results from the recent bazaar and lunch will be reported.

The Jim Swans report a cold, wet weekend of hunting southeast of Lapine, without a single deer sighted. They were accompanied on their trip by Miss Marion Peschek and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. McDonald of St. Helens.

W. D. Hoeye, industrial arts teacher in the high school, is attending a dinner meeting of the Willamette Valley Arts association in Eugene this evening. Part of the evening's program will include a tour of the new Eugene high school.

Last week we made mention of the Kings Teens of the Christian church were having a halloween party for members October 31. Everything was all right with the exception that the membership is made up of youth from all religious faiths of the area. We are sorry that this error occurred and state that it was purely unintentional.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klecker went to Salem Friday where he submitted to an operation for the removal of a growth in his throat. He remained in the hospital over night, but now is back on the job.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Toman, Mrs. Toman's father, Wilson Stevens, and Johnny Lombert, both of Mehama, hunted Saturday morning in the Little Northfork country. All bought in does.
