DETROIT

By Boots Champion
 DETROIT—At an 8 p.m. ceremony Monday, November 9, at the Idanha Community church Miss Marla R. Vickers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Vickers of Idanha, became the bride of David R. Lindley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lindley of Feather Falls, Calif.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. Elvin Fast of Salem, before an altar decorated with daisies, wild rose, asters and chrysanthemums. The wedding music was furnished by pianist Mrs. Ruth Skidmore. Eva Lou New sang "Because of You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white ballerina frock, with a sprig of stephanotis in her hair. Her maid of honor was Miss Mary Gordon of Idanha. Little Bonnie Vickers was flower girl. James Wright of Idanha was best man.

Ushers were Gerald Vickers and Freddie Taylor. Candles were lit by Miss Becky Stoll.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ann Vickers of Manzanita, stepmother of Mr. Vickers, and Mrs. H. Steinbrueck of Centralia, Wn., mother of Mrs. Vickers. Following the ceremony a reception for members of the wedding party was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edison Vickers. Assisting were Mrs. Bernadine Stoll and Mrs. Floy Storey.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Lindley will make their home in Detroit. L. Vickers is in charge of church decorations.

John Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Len Davis of Idanha was made an honorary member of Beta Theta fraternity last Thursday. Johnie is attending normal school at Monmouth.

The American Legion Auxiliary held their annual Armistice dinner, Nov. 11th at the Detroit school. Proceeds will be used for Christmas treats.

Teachers institute will be held at the Salem high school the 12th and 13th. Speakers will be Mrs. Dorothy Babington of Monadesto, Calif., and Dr. Karl Ernest of the Portland schools, and Dr. Mason McQuiston of the state department of education of Salem.

The theme will be individual differences in the slow learner and the gifted child. A luncheon will be served. Mrs. Joe Wright formerly of Detroit, is now making her home with her son and daughter-in-law and family, the Courtney Wrights in Miami, Fla. Her address is 5801, S. W. 20th, Miami, Florida.

Guy Moore who underwent major surgery at Salem Memorial hospital recently was released Friday and returned to his home in Detroit. Mrs. Dee Palmer was also released from the hospital on that day.

Little 2-year-old Frankie Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, of Detroit, who has been ill the past week, and under the doctor's care is on the road to recovery.

The annual school carnival sponsored by the entire student body of the Detroit school, and held in the Gym Friday evening, November 6 was a success. Various carnival booths were set up by the 6, 7 and 8th grades and high school students. The bingo game was the center of attraction. The door prize, a popup toaster was won by Ronald Leming of Idanha. Lillian Butler was elected as carnival queen by the student body. The carnival netted $200 which will be divided between the elementary and high school to be used for class room activities.
