DETROIT

By Boots Champion

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wallace and family, moved to Lowell, Oregon, Tuesday, where Mr. Wallace has found employment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meals of Detroit entertained with an early "Thanksgiving" dinner at their home Tuesday evening, Nov. 10 at 6 p. m.

The event was in honor of A2-c-Bob Layman, who left Tuesday for Parks AFB, near Oakland, Calif., where he will report for overseas duty (Japan). Bob who has been home on a 45-day furlough, was accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman.

Traveling by car the threesome will visit in Reno, Las Vegas and other points of interest enroute to Parks AFB. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman will then motor on to Arlington, Texas, where they will visit with friends. They plan to be gone about a month.

Present at the dinner were the honor guest, Bob Layman, his fiancée, Miss Bernice Meals, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman, Miss Dolores Meals, Melvin Meals, Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Jayne, Salem, grandparents, and the hosts Mr. and Mrs. John Meals. The Meals-Layman engagement was announced at an earlier date.

Two respective charivaries took place Friday night. One at Idanha, the other in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. (Alice Wally) Dean Ruzic of Idanha who were married October 30th and Mr. and Mrs. (Marla Vickers) David E. Lindley, who were married on Nov. 9th and now making their home in Detroit were given the old familiar bit of doings that goes with the traditional charivari. They were a howling success.

Now that shuffleboard tournament season is not too far in the distance, participants in this area are getting warmed up preparatory to the event, which will start after the first of the year.

In the season's off the record first challenge game between the Cedars and The Lake, played Thursday night at the Lake, Cedars scored 165 points to Lakes 144. Captains for these respective tournament teams are Marion Kite, Cedars and Herman Smith, Lake.

Robert McNally was transferred recently from the Rigdon district to the Detroit area, where he will continue to work as a forest service scaler.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hamm, who recently returned from Missionary service in Chile, S. A., were guest speakers Sunday evening, Nov. 15 at the Idanha Community church.

Picture slides were shown to augment their account of experiences encountered in their missionary work. This was a return engagement for the Hamm's, since they visited the Idanha church shortly before leaving for Chile.

At the annual investiture services held Monday, Nov. 16 at 7:30 p. m. in the Detroit school auditorium, eight girls from the Idanha-Detroit area who completed tenderfoot requirements, received their Girl Scout Badges. They are Brenda Humphrey, Carolyn Beeson, Lyndia Storey, Nancy Storey, Mary Lou Moore, Sherry Sheppard, Darlene Delker, and Kathryn Harris.

Second year scouts who received their second class badges and membership stars were: Gloria Evensen, Evelyn Harper, Carolyn Lady, Martha Mason, Susan Moore, Martine Rarey, Donna Rae Stevens, Becky Stoll, Clydia Storey, Darlene Storey and Mary Will.

The latter list of girls, who are already working toward their first class badges, also received from one to seven proficiency badges in camp craft, outdoor cookery, and tree identification.

A volunteer work day is scheduled Saturday, Nov. 21 at the Detroit church, to apply knotty cedar wainscoting to the interior.

Don't forget the "jitney" dinner folks, to be held at the Detroit school cafeteria Thursday evening, Nov. 19 at 6 p. m. This event is sponsored by the PTA and is a "pot luck" affair to raise money for the landscaping of the school grounds now in progress. At the dinner William Fryer will show slides from his work at a mission in New Zealand, from which he recently returned. Girls from the Home Economics department of the high school will help with the serving. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ellis of Scio, were Monday night dinner guests at the John Estey home. Mrs. Ellis is the daughter of Mr. Estey. Virginia White of Portland was a weekend guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. White.

Tommy Skeen, who's shoulder was injured a few weeks ago, is packing his arm in a sling, due to infection.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Russell were Mr. and Mrs. D. Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. L. Precell, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Shute, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Elstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Russell, all of Portland.

A familiar face can be seen behind the bar at the Cedar Tavern. Our neighbor, Red Rynearson, of Gates, is pinch hitting for the Earl Laymans while they are on vacation. Nice to see you back, Red.

Old man winter got his punches in pretty low, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. That white stuff on the ridges surrounding Detroit, is just what it looks like, SNOW. Let's hope it stays up there.

PLENTY

"Be Thankful for Plenty" was the title of a sermon we heard many years ago. And we'll never forget how the preacher defined "plenty."

"If you have everything that money can buy, all the necessities and all the luxuries of life—and you don't have a Bible you can read and understand—then you've nothing to be thankful for! You're in want!"

"But if God has given you just enough of this world's goods for you to live from day to day—and you've a Bible you turn to every day—then be thankful! You have plenty!"

We can cherish that homely bit of inspiration. It sums up the kind of Thanksgiving our forefathers believed in . . . the kind of Thanksgiving that millions of us will celebrate this week in Church!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Thanksgiving

...is more than tradition

"Thanksgiving Day" has a deep and significant meaning in America. Through its observance we express our thanks to God for the many blessings that only America gives to its citizens—for freedom of worship, for the full opportunity to educate our children, for the right to choose where we live and work.

Protect and preserve these individual freedoms and there'll always be a "Thanksgiving Day" in America.
