MEHAMA

Mrs. John Teeters
The Mehama Women's Club met at the club house for their regular meeting Tuesday evening, November 17. After a short business session Mrs. Gerald Rockwell, Mrs. Lester Luke and Mrs. Douglas Barrows sang several numbers accompanied by Mrs. Ercill Wilson at the piano. A special guest for the evening was Mrs. Gobie deLespinesse of Hubbard who gave a very interesting talk on juvenile problems, particularly in connection with the McLaren school for boys near Woodburn. Mrs. deLespinesse has worked with the boys at the school for a good many years and doubtless knows more about the problems there than nearly anyone connected with the school. Another visitor was Mrs. Mable Cook also from Hubbard. Mrs. Cook taught in the Mehama schools for a number of years and is very well known here. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Orval Bilyeu, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. Gerald Rockwell and Mrs. Lester Luke.
Mrs. H. W. McCarley was hostess at her home for the meeting of the Ladies Aid Thursday afternoon, November 19. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Keith Phillips, the meeting was presided over by the vice president, Mrs. Jennie Moe. Mrs. Noble

Streeter led the devotions and Mrs. L. E. Wallen presented the program. The subject was missions with emphasis on the African field. Several letters were read from the Kolthers who are on the mission field in Central America. The next meeting will be at the B. L. Kirsch home on December 3. The nominating committee will give their report at this meeting and election of officers will be held.

Mrs. John Mack, Jr. (Pat, Shields) who was married November 9 in Reno, Nevada, was guest of honor at a bride's shower at the women's club house Friday evening, November 20. Assisting at the gift table were: Deanie McDonald, Mary Ellen Mack, Mrs. Lester Luke, and Mrs. Stanley Forrest. After the opening of the gifts refreshments were served by the hostesses: Mrs. Otto Marks, Mrs. Oren Small, Mrs. Chris McDonald and Mrs. Jennie Moe to the following: Mesdames Bill Trask, Sherman Wall, Larry Kimsey, Richard Mitchell and Beverly, B. L. Kirsch, Ed. Castle, Orval Bilyeu, John Teeters, Grant Smith, Frank White, Raymond Branch, E. C. A. Landers, Mrs. L. E. Wallen, Mrs. Charles Cook, Mrs. R. L. Williams, Mrs. Ida Spriggs and Mrs. Mabel Patton.

Mrs. Jennie Moe entertained at a dinner a week ago Sunday for the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. John Mack Jr. Additional guests were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shields.

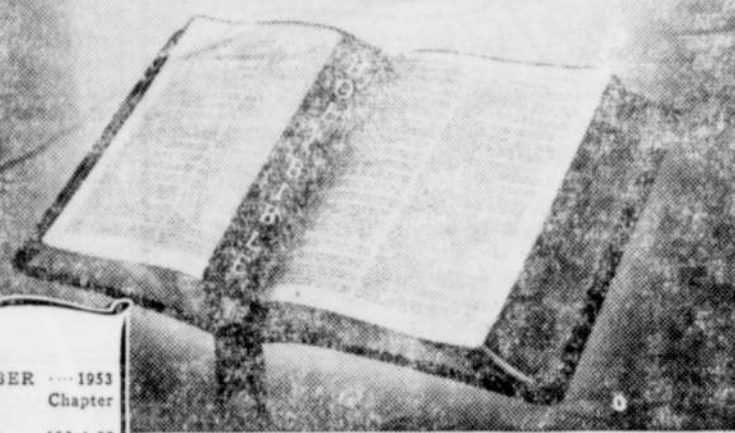

Dinner guests with Mrs. Adelaide Orange Tuesday evening of last week were Mrs. Gobie deLespinesse and Mrs. Mable Cook of Hubbard.

Alexander Pope has said, "Hope springs eternal in the human breast." And most of us will certainly not dispute his word. Who does not look for a better tomorrow? Who does not expect our troubles and sorrows will be eased next week, next month, or next year? It is human nature, and it is a wonderful attribute. But mere wishful thinking and idle day-dreaming will do little to make our hopes come true. A passive attitude toward our ambitions will surely find us no better than before. This is true in all walks of life; in work, in play, in day-to-day living. Along with this hope within us, other God-given gifts must be utilized. Habits of love, generosity, and brotherhood must be developed and our faith strengthened by regular attendance at our spiritual home, the Church. The Bible... the Word of God... has been given to us as a pattern, a way of life for all to follow. Here we find the greatest promise ever given—that of eternal life. Through its great truths our hopes and ambitions are brought into proper perspective and we are able to press forward with confidence. Take advantage of this great gift. Truly it is the Book of Hope!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
