LYONS

By Eva Bressler

Mrs. Ivan Smith was hostess for the members of the Lyons Extension unit at her home Friday afternoon when they held their Christmas party and gift exchange. Mrs. Harvey Grimes was the lucky one to win the cake with the dime in it. The next meeting will be held the third Friday in January. At that time Mrs. Joe Johnson and Mrs. Ivan Smith will demonstrate "Copper Tooling." At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served to Mes. Glen Julian, William Hargin, Donald McWhirk, Earl Thayer, Eugene Sperle, Alvin Palmer, Harvey Grimes, Alwood Aronson, Marvin Edwards, Charles Cruson, Floyd Bassett, Alex Bodeker, John Prideaux, and the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

Claudia Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson, student at the Stayton high school met with a freak accident the other day when she was running down the hall. She stumbled and fell through a glass door, receiving lacerations of the face, arms and hands, necessitating several stitches to close the wounds.

The Christmas story will be solemnized in both word and song, at the Lyons Community Methodist church this Sunday morning, December 20, from 11 to 12. The topic of Rev. Sheriff's sermon will be "The Star." Sacred overtures, "Sing or Sing This Blessed Morn" and "Joy to the World" will be presented by the church orchestra. Song service will be furnished by the junior choir.

The Mari-Linn school will present their annual program in the gym on Friday evening, December 18. There will be treats for the kiddies furnished by the Mari-Linn PTA. Everyone is welcome to attend.

The Santiam Valley Grange will hold their social meeting and Christmas party at the grange hall Thursday evening, December 17 with a gift exchange for all. Everyone is to bring a gift not to exceed 50c in price; a man to bring a man's gift and a lady to bring a gift for a lady.

Faith Rebekah lodge will have their regular meeting December 23, followed by their Christmas party and gift exchange. Secret pal names will be revealed and new ones drawn for another year.

Donna Lu, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Huber was taken to Doerenbecher hospital in Portland Friday, where she will remain for several days under observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Alwood Aronson, Ray and Paul were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christensen in Springfield.

Don Remmenga of Seattle spent Saturday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rem-menga. He returned to Seattle Sunday morning. Miss Wanda Mills of Denver, is a guest at the Remmenga home.

Mrs. Bessie BeBoer from Elwood, Nebraska, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Anne Lechleitner. She will also visit at the home of her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Remmenga.

Mrs. W. W. Carter and small daughter have returned to their home here from Anchorage, Alaska. Mr. Carter will arrive about Christmas time.

Pfc Donald Kulken of Fort Lewis spent the weekend with his wife and other relatives in Lyons.

The Home Economics club of the Santiam Valley grange held their regular business meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Floyd Bassett. Following the regular business meeting a general discussion was held with many plans made for the coming months. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Bassett served refreshments to Mes. Elmer Taylor, Giles Wagner, Frank Basl, Wilson Stevens, Leo Russell and Jerry Coffman.

A small crowd was in attendance at the regular meeting of Faith Rebekah lodge Wednesday evening due to other activities. Jean Roberts, noble grade, presided over the meeting with Helen Anderson secretary. Plans were made and discussed for the next meeting, December 23 when they will hold their annual Christmas party and gift exchange. Secret pal names will be revealed and new ones drawn for another year. At the social hour refreshments were served by Alma Olmstead and Bonnie Wagner.

The Cub Scouts will hold their regular pack meeting Thursday evening, December 17 at 7:30 in the Mari-Linn gym.

Mrs. Joe Johnson and Mrs. Ivan Smith went to Albany Wednesday where they attended a meeting in copper tooling. They will present the project to the Extension unit some time in January.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Remmenga were Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips and family from Albany and Mrs. Mabel Phillips from Denver.

Mrs. J. H. Johnston has returned home from Medford after spending some time there at the home of her sister. She also visited at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Humphries at Myrtle Creek.

Mrs. Kenneth Bass is convalescing at her home with a broken leg. To correct an error of last week, the accident happened while skating at the Mari-Linn gym, instead of in Stayton.
