GATES

Mrs. Albert Millsap

Preparations for the Christmas holidays are in full swing in Gates, everybody busy Christmas shopping and planning for the homecoming of relatives. (That makes poor pickin's for us unfortunate correspondents—nothing doing.)

The annual Christmas program to be presented by students of the junior-senior high and Gates grade school will be held in the gym Wednesday evening, at 7:30, December 23. Darrell Crossler, of the high school faculty and Mrs. Richard Parker, teacher of the sixth grade are co-chairmen in charge of the program, at which the theme will be "Living Christmas Cards." The public is invited.

The Gates Womans club will hold their annual Christmas party and gift exchange, Thursday evening, December 17. Mrs. Orville Nygaard, Mrs. George Clise and Mrs. Tim White will be hostess for the affair. Members will be notified by mail where the party will be held.

Mrs. Elmer Klutke, Mrs. Glen Hennes, Mrs. Edmund Davis and Mrs. Velma Carey, members of the Fairview Cemetery association were hostesses Saturday evening at a card party, held in the recreation rooms of the high school. A much smaller group was in attendance than had been hoped for but more than $35 was realized from the games and the sale of refreshments. This sum will be applied to the expense incurred by the survey of the cemetery and the new addition recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Everton, of Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Don Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kayler, all of Molalla were weekend guests at the Burrell Cole home. Mrs. Cole and Mr. Everton are brother and sister. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Everton and Mr. and Mrs. Cole drove to Eugene to visit relatives which they had not seen for 30 years.

Tuesday evening at a meeting of the 4H Forestry group an election of officers was held. Kirk Nygard was elected president; Walter Thomas Jr., vice president Darlene Joaquin, secretary-treasurer and Roberta Chance, yell leader. Mrs. Edward Chance is leader of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walkup motored to Albany Sunday, where they spent the day visiting friends.

There's Praise Ahead when your turkey dressing's made with Stuffin' Bread

Savory! Delicious! Real down-on-the-farm flavor! That's how your family and guests will describe your dressing.

Stuffin' Bread is a tasty loaf with exactly the right combination of spices and seasonings...baked right in.

No fuss! No muss! No guesswork! You just add melted butter and water and, presto...you're ready to stuff your bird. Promise yourself praise! Use Stuffin' Bread this year.
