DETROIT

Mrs. Elaine Farrow

Detroit and Idanha took part in the lashing rain and wind storm that swept in from the coast Friday and Saturday, causing damages to several roofs and both power and telephone lines in the area.

Among those who discovered they were minus roofing were Mr. and Mrs. Tietz of Detroit, Joe Leis, the Leonard Bullards and the Detroit school.

A slide was reported on the Detroit to Mill City highway Saturday evening and trees had to be removed from the highway above Idanha.

Victims of too much water from the recent downpour were the Henry Hieberts, of Idanha, who were awakened Saturday morning to find the floor around their floor furnace had caught fire. Water rising up under the house flooded the furnace so the gas burned on top of the water. Fortunately it was discovered before too much damage occurred.

Detroit school children will have their Christmas parties Thursday morning from 9 until 10 after which all will go home for the remainder of the holidays with school starting again on January 4th.

High school members will enjoy a dance and party in the school gym on Tuesday evening.

The Harold Champions of Detroit left Saturday on their trip to Iowa for the holidays. We hope they have a pleasant trip. Please call 310, Elaine Farrow, if you have news to report. Thank you.

Among those receiving felicitations on new arrivals are: Mr. and Mrs. Athol Savage of Idanha and Mr. and Mrs. Al Warby of Detroit. Mrs. Savage arrived home Friday evening with their new daughter Rebecca Dorene. She's a cute little red head, making an even number for the Savages, two boys, two girls. Mrs. Warby arrived home Sunday evening with their new baby boy, David William, and not to be outdone, they have an even number too, two boys, two girls.

Among those who will be spending Christmas out of the Canyon will be Emma Rhodes of Detroit, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Lon Everly of Idanha who are leaving for California on Wednesday. The Everlys will visit his father, who we are sorry to say has been ill and his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beck of Long Beach. Mrs. Rhodes will spend Christmas at Carmichael with her father, Jesse E. Fry and brother, Perry Fry, and recent bride of Ukiah, Cal. The Becks and the Frys are all former residents of Detroit. I have word that Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fry of Ukiah will be in the Canyon for the New Year holidays. They will be very welcome visitors.

Lillian Gescher, of Detroit, would be very pleased and happy if the person who found her Benrus wrist watch expansion band would return it to her. Its been "lost" since a week ago Saturday.

Our sympathy goes out to Ellen Manning, of Detroit, who underwent surgery Monday in a Portland hospital. We hope your out again for the holidays, Ellen.

And to Thomas Sheehan of Detroit who will start physical therapy treatments for a leg condition right after Christmas in hopes that surgery will not be necessary. We'll all hope for you Tommy. Tommy has had his share of leg operations due to injury sustained in World War II.

To all you shuffleboard players, don't forget the league games start on January 8. The Cedars won over the Spillway in a practice game Thursday evening 142-120. Next practice game will be at the Spillway Wednesday night with the Cedars.

Mrs. Ray Sophy of Detroit and Mrs. Gordon of Idanha attended a discussion of consolidation of Detroit and Mill City schools at Mill City Monday. It is of utmost importance that everyone attend the next discussion to be held in Detroit in the near future. This issue concerns both the parents of high school and grade school children.

The PTA held their meeting on Wednesday evening, December 16th. About 60 were present. Mr. Warby's seventh and eighth grade rooms gave a Christmas play. Mrs. Gordon Skidmore played Ave Maria and Winter Wonderland, on the violin, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Frank Nev. Sally and Eva Lou New played White Christmas and Jingle Bells on the piano, marimba and accordion. Mrs. Skidmore played the piano for Christmas Carol singing led by Stanley White. Fruit cake and coffee were served by the 4th grade room mothers.

Mrs. Ella Johnson of Detroit was hostess to the Civic Club Christmas party held on Thursday evening at the Johnson home. Mrs. Marion Kite did the decorating. On the entertainment committee were Mabel Parker, Winnifred Moore and Alice Moore. The evening was spent playing cootie and canasta games and exchanging gifts. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cal Shlador, Helen Byrant and Audrey Layman. Weiners and buns with meat sauce were served.

The Eagles Auxiliary 2745 held their Christmas party and dinner on Wednesday evening. Turkey and all the good things that go with it were enjoyed. Eighteen were present for the dinner and exchanging gifts. We are sorry more members could not attend.

Here lies the body of Richard Roe, a hunter thought he was a doe.
