The Mehama church and Sunday school program at the church Saturday evening was attended by a large and appreciative audience. Outstanding was the performance of the eight-voice mixed choir which made its first appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis spent Sunday visiting with their son and family in Portland.

Visiting during the weekend at the Jennie Moe and Larry Kimsey homes were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brant and family of Macleay.

Elementary Students Present Program

Over 220 elementary school children took part in the annual Christmas program presented in the elementary school gym Wednesday evening.

The program was opened by a chorus of first graders singing "Away in a Manger" and "Santa's Toy Shop." A Christmas pageant, "Because of Jesus' Birthday," consisted of five scenes: Christmas carolers, Christmas greens, Christmas greetings, Christmas gifts, and the Nativity scene. All parts were taken by members of the third and fourth grades; Karen Marshall and Susan Jenkins were narrators. The second grade class concluded the first part of the program with two songs, "Come Little Children" and "Winds through the Olive Trees." Miss Helen Kliever and Mrs. Earl Loucks were in charge of the lower grade program.

A chorus of 65 voices from the upper grades, under the direction of Miss Alice Smith, sang a group of four Christmas songs, concluding with "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas" which was the introduction to the upper grade play, "White Christmas." Those taking part in the one-act play were Larry Urban, Linda Dyhrman, Phyllis Pate, Gary Bevier, Shirley Veness, Vernon Johnson, Donald Cree, Mary Ann Hoffman and Barbara Fleming.

Mill City Loses To St. Boniface Friday

The Mill City grade-school Tigers dropped a see-saw basketball battle to St. Boniface Friday evening at the Mill City gym. The Tigers didn't play the brand of ball which they showed against Scio last week.

Except for the third quarter, Mill City was unable to find the basket. High point man for Mill City was Dale Smith with 8 points. Heuberger led the winners with 14.

The Mill City girls volleyball team won their game 60 to 12. No games are scheduled until after the holidays.
