GATES

Mrs. Albert Millsap

Several students and servicemen will be at home with their families over the holidays. Lyle Fleetwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood and Thurlio Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Cole, both students at O.T.I. in Klamath Falls arrived Friday. Pvt. Earle Henness arrived by air at Portland, Saturday night, from Camp Gordon, Georgia. He was met at the Portland airport by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Henness and will be at home until after the first of the year. Sunday dinner guests at the Glen Henness home, in compliment to their son Earle, were two other sons and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Henness and Kandee and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Henness and son from Mehama.

Mrs. Laura Joaquin has returned to her home in Gates to stay, after employment in San Jose, California for the past seven months. Mrs. Joaquin says she prefers our Gates weather, rain and all, in preference to the heat and fog of California. It is hard for us Oregonians to believe, but she insists that only two showers fell in the southern city in the seven months she was there and those of only 10 minutes duration.

Joseph Bowes, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Martha Bowes and Mrs. Mary Eggelstrom drove to Portland Friday to attend the Christmas program at the school at which Mrs. Joseph Bowes is employed as teacher. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Struckmeier attended the funeral service for Ernest Kelly, in Albany Friday. Mr. Kelly, a life long friend of the Struckmeier family died suddenly Tuesday, Dec. 15. He was a recent resident of Salem, having returned to the family home in Scio only two months ago.

Mrs. W. S. Hudson was among Christmas shoppers in Salem Wednesday. She also visited members of her family, who reside there.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Levon returned last Sunday from a two-week visit in San Francisco with Mr. Levon's parents and many former friends. They report a pleasant drive both ways and perfect weather in the California city during their stay there.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood spent from Friday through Monday of last week visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beisell and two sons, in Gresham and at the home of Mr. Fleetwood's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Moored, in Vancouver, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap visited and shopped in Stayton Monday. They visited at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Klecker and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gordon arrived in Gates Thursday evening to spend the holidays at the home of Mr. Gordon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gordon. Gordon has just been discharged from service in the Airforce. He has been stationed at Mather Field, California, for the past 18 months.

Members of the Gates high school band, which is under the direction of Roy Shelton, of Salem, participated in a band concert with the school bands from Detroit, Clear Lake and Perrydale, with guest students from Salem, Mill City and Clear Lake. The concert was held Thursday evening, December 17 in the gymnasium at the Perrydale school. Those taking part from Gates were Ellen Chance, Donalee Oliver, Roger Schaer, Wayne Devine, Alan Vale, David Moore, Dean Mattig, Rodney Schaer, John Barnhardt, Margaret Palmer, Danny Evans, Ann Marie Hirte, David Vale and Lois Evans.

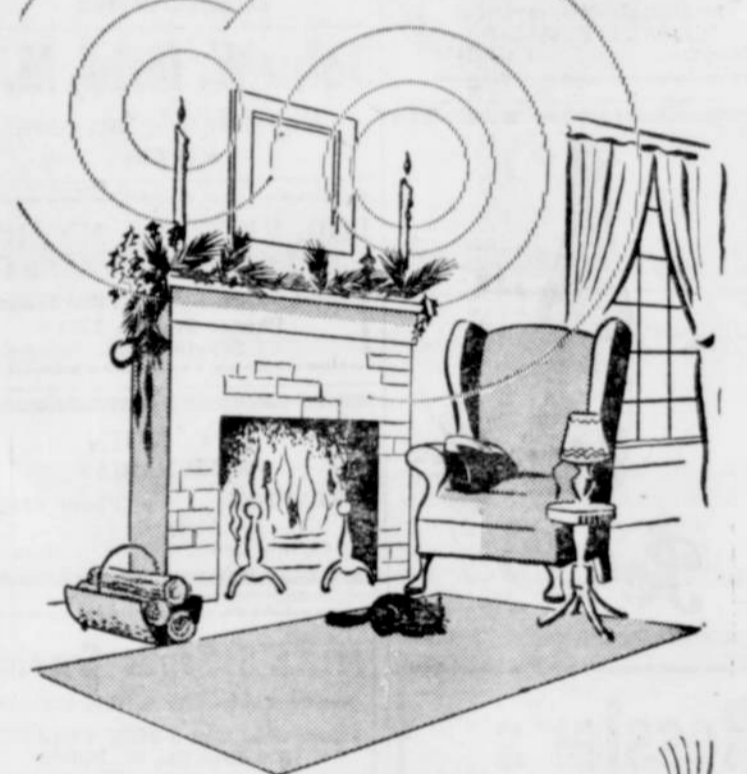

We send you a bright note of cheer, this Holiday.
