DETROIT IDANHA

Mrs. Elaine Farrow

Idanha residents have been slushing around in snow as of Saturday evening, while some in Detroit laughingly brag they are living in the banana belt area. Of course we know that's a little far-fetched, especially those who have just returned from California and report the weather there beautiful and of the shirt-sleeve variety. Of those fortunate few were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haseman of Idanha, who returned home Sunday from San Francisco where they visited friends over the holidays. Disregarding the weather and the fact that the water was too cold to enjoy, Earl Carte, of Idanha claims the honor of the first to go swimming in 1954, at least in this area. He took

This 1954 Ford Crestline Fordor sedan—new this year—has interior beauty and new power assists usually found only in costly limousines. Its smart new grille has a characteristic Ford center spinner, recessed parking lights and jet-type air scoop. Like all 1954 Ford passenger cars, it has new ball-joint front suspension for easier handling and the choice of either Ford's completely new 130-h.p. V-8 engine or the new 115-h.p. I-block Mileage Maker Six. For ease and driving pleasure it has power steering, power brakes, power operated windows and front seat, plus Fordomatic or overdrive, available at extra cost.

his dip in the Termite Lumber Co. mill pond (by accident of course.)

Married on New Year's eve at 8:30 o'clock in Vancouver, Wash., were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Arsenault (Enid Bennett) daughter of Mrs. John Estey, all of Detroit.

The bride wore a blue suit with black accessories and her favorite corsage, white gardenias. J. B. Bowman, justice of the peace performed the ceremony. Standing in as witnesses for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ehrstrom of Portland, who also entertained them as guests over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. John Estey were also guests at her daughter's wedding. Mr. Arsenault has recently joined the wedded list on December 27.

will be at home in Detroit. Mrs. Arsenault will have a triple occasion to celebrate next year. Not only was it New Year's eve and her wedding date, it was also her birthday.

John Estey of Detroit, recently had the pleasure of greeting an uncle who told Johnny he was only three weeks old at their last meeting. He is Frank Foster of Aiken, Minn., who dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Baucke, Portland, while Mr. Estey was visiting there last weekend.

Mrs. O. J. White and daughter, Marlene, left Monday for Bremerton, where Marlene will join her husband, Alc Bob Budlong who has recently been transferred from San Diego.

We wish a quick recovery to these: Mrs. John Estey, Detroit, who has been quite ill since Christmas with virus pneumonia. Mrs. Anthony Savage, Idanha, who has been ill. Mrs. Scott Young, Marion, Forks, who twisted her ankle and fell, fracturing a small bone in one leg on Christmas day; Mrs. Gearhart of Detroit, who has been ill; Thomas Sheehan, Detroit underwent surgical removal of shrapnel wounds to both legs during War II and as a result has undergone many operations including plastic surgery. He is also taking physical therapy treatments to improve a muscle condition resulting from these injuries.

Just to let you know it can't get a "good guy" down, were pleased to report that Guy Moore is doing very nicely since his recent bout in surgery and just to keep in trim finds himself doing all sorts of jobs around home.

The Ray Walters, Nina, Gene and Frankie of Roseburg, formerly of Detroit, visited with friends in Idanha and Detroit Saturday. Mrs. Walters and the three children have just recovered from Mumps.

Holiday visitors also were the Marion Sowa family of Roseburg, formerly of Idanha who visited with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Bullard at Detroit. The Bullards are leaving Detroit this week for The Dalles, where Mr. Bullard hopes to find work.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman of Detroit for New Years were Mr. and Mrs. Small and Jerry Creasy of Toledo, Oregon. Greatly missed during the holiday was their only son, A2c Bob Layman who writes he is now in Japan, the Philippines and is now on Okinawa.

The "Bud" Gescher's of Detroit entertained New Years Day dinner guests which included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown and twins, Donna and Linda and Carl Ball.

--Mill Ends--

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ross spent New Years day in Salem visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett and daughter, Rosalie, were visitors in Salem Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Harold Martin were in Portland Monday. Mrs. Martin remained there.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Higley and family, of Portland, spent a few days here at the Paul Higley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kliever motored to Portland where they spent the New Year's weekend visiting with friends.

Mrs. Edna Jenkins and her sister, Mrs. Red Wills, spent the holidays in Los Angeles where they visited a sister, Mrs. Gladys Carr.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson and daughter of Arcadia, California, are visiting for a few days with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McClintock.

Floyd Shepherd is able to be out and around again after having spent some time in the hospital where he underwent an operation for double hernia. He still has to take it easy.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Witt returned Monday night from Glendale, California, where they had visited with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bassett. They report a splendid visit. They went by train.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lalack and Monte, and Mr. and Mrs. Oral Williams of Ocean Lake, California, were guests at the Clarence Howe home. Saturday night the group was entertained at the Joe Lalack home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Umphress motored to Empire Saturday night. Mrs. Umphress remained at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, the David McIntyre where she will care for the McIntyre's new baby son.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bassett and family returned home New Years day from Springfield, Ohio. They report splendid weather on the trip and that they did not turn their windshield wipers on until they hit the Cascade summit on the return trip.

Guests for Christmas dinner of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Turnidge were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cribbs and daughter, Sandra and Mr. Cribbs mother, Mrs. Mae Cribbs, of Cascadia, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cree and children, Shirley Jean and Bobby of Sutherlin.

A small group of young people home for the holidays surprised Lela Kelly with an impromptu "get-together" Saturday night when they dropped in for the evening. Those making up the party were Ardit Jones, Dolores Poole, Vera Leucks, Bob Shelton, Bill Hamblin, and Lela Kelly.

Announcing for '54
NEW FORD TRUCKS
with TRIPLE ECONOMY!

NOW! 5 Ford engines offer the mightiest concentration of power per cubic inch ever in any truck line! V-8 and SIX!

For the power they develop, the engines in the 1954 Ford Truck line have less cubic inch displacement than engines in other-make lines. For example, Ford's 239 cu. in. Power King V-8 develops its 130 h.p. on as much as 43 cu. in. less displacement. Smaller-displacement engines normally need less gas! That's one big reason why Ford concentrated power offers greater economy!

Ford takes the lead in ALL 3 vital factors that make for lower-cost trucking!

1. Now, only in Ford Trucks—gas-saving, LOW-FRICTION, high-compression, overhead-valve, deep-block engines in all truck models! 115- to 170-h.p.!

2. New Driverized Cabs, Master-Guide Power Steering, Power Brakes, Fordomatic Drive for faster control!

3. New greater capacity! New Factory-Built "6-wheelers," gross up to 48% more!
