DETROIT IDANHA

By Mrs. Elaine Farrow

To those of you in the Valley who are always asking this question: "Whatever do you do up there, especially when you're all snowed in?" I would like to say, I don't think we, of Detroit and Idanha ever get that "snowed in" as evidenced by this past weekend during which we got the biggest snow so far this year and yet the activities increased if anything. The Lake shuffleboard team of Detroit went to Mill City Friday night and were defeated by Meander Inn as was the Spillway of Idanha by The Cedars team of Detroit. Three children celebrated their birthdays and enjoyed parties with friends Friday the 15th. They were Candice Firestone, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Evan Firestone, Detroit who is 8 years old. Michael Cobine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cobine, Idanha, now 7 years old and Freddie Farrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Farrow, Idanha, now 11 years old.

Saturday night, a combined birthday, wedding anniversary and charivari party was held at the Eric Nyberg home in Idanha honoring the hostess, Oskie Nyberg, Melba Harlan and Ann Stevens of Detroit, and Bob Johnson, Idanha on their birthdays. Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Fagan, Detroit Ranger station on their 29th wedding anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Arsenault who were married on New Year's eve. Forty people attended this open-house party and toasted these well-known Canyonites with everything from Champagne to coffee. Bob and Dorothy Johnson supplied a most delicious turkey with dressing, which with three kinds of salad, cheese and rye, pickles and olives prepared by the hostess and also very tasty, made a feast fit for kings. All those who attended want to thank all those responsible for a wonderful time and wish them again, many happy birthdays and wedding anniversaries.

Have you ever built a big fire on a snowy hillside after dark and roasted wieners and marshmallows and drank hot chocolate with nothing but the sky overhead and while its snowing also? These snow enthusiasts did Sunday evening after a day spent tobogganing: Edna Golden, LuAnn Manning, Judy Haseman, Madelyn, Marlene and Marylynn Shephard, Gary Stevens, Robert Lady, Don and Leonard Snyder, Lee Hopson, Gerald and Lanny Vickers and their mother, Mrs. Vickers and small sister Bonnie.

Everyone is invited to a "Bingo party" Saturday January 23 at 7:30 at the Spar Cafe in Idanha. Proceeds go for the March of Dimes. The party is sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary and the Willing Workers club. Door prizes and good prizes.

Herman Smith of Detroit is happy to have the cast off his arm which was broken in two places and a finger dislocated about six weeks ago.

Tude Russell, Detroit, went to see her mother, Mrs. Harris, in McMinnville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bolin, Eugene, spent the weekend with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Farrow, Idanha. Mr. Bolin's pet hobby is taking slide pictures and they came up to get some snow scenes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Champion are expected back this week. Boots wrote that the weather in Iowa was grand and no snow and she hoped the weather would be as nice for their return trip as it was going. We hope they take the surprise lightly and arrive safely anyway. They were to leave on Saturday the 16th from Albert City, Iowa, where they visited with his aunt, uncle, nieces and nephews. Harold's sister was also able to get home for four days over New Year's from Chicago where she is a nurse. All in all they report a very enjoyable visit.

Canyon women shuffleboard players have been challenged to a game by the women players of Mill City to be played at The Lake next Tuesday, January 26. We accept your challenge, Mill City, with pleasure.

The Eagles Auxiliary of F.O.E. 2745 will hold a rummage sale in their hall at Detroit about the first of February. A definite date will be posted later. Watch for it. Anyone having articles they'd like to donate, please contact an Eagle member and they will gladly pick it up.
