Rainbow Girls Install New Officers Saturday Night

Impressive ceremonies for the new officers of Marilyn Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, was held at the lodge hall Saturday evening, January 16. Installing officers included: Geraldine Hamblin, worthy advisor; Lela Mel Kelly, marshal; Jeanie Porter, worthy advisor of Ramona Assembly at Silverton as recorder; Donna Jackson, Grand Immortality of the Grand Assembly of Oregon, and also of Ramona Assembly, as chaplain; and Frances Johnson, as musician.

Installed worthy advisor for the ensuing term was Penelope Gould, during whose installation Mrs. Donald Sheythe sang a beautiful solo, "Three Candles," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lee Ross.

Other officers installed were as follows: Worthy Associate Advisor, Judy Haseman; Charity, Janette Huffman; Hope, Shirley Hansen; Faith, Joyce Watkins; Recorder, Donna Bengston; Treasurer, Nancy Olson; Chaplain, Jancy Porter; Drill Leader, Annette Melting; Associate Drill Leader, Frances Ward; Love, Donalee Oliver; Religion, Norma Jean Bentley; Nature, Dee Davison; Immortality, Rosalie Bassett; Fidelity, Camille Goble; Patriotism, Frances Johnson; Service, Jackie Bickett; Confidential Observer, Karen Andreassen; and Choir Director, Jan Ross. Members of the choir consist of Lynda Dyrman, Norma Jean Downer, Virginia Hollenbaugh, Beverley Roberts, Barbara Podrabsky, Margaret Palmer and Audrey Shaw.

The advisory board made up of Masons and Eastern Star members were installed as follows: Mabel Parker, Worthy Matron of Marilyn Chapter; Ethel Huffman, Chairman of Board; Fern Shuey, Mother Advisor; Opal McRoberts, Associate Mother Advisor; Robert Draper, Worshipful Master, Lodge No. 180; George Huffman, Secretary of Board; Leora Stevens, Doris Hasemen, Laurell Johnson, Wilson Stevens, William Shuey, and O. K. Hirte.

Crowning ceremony for the new Worthy Advisor, "Miss Penny" were put on by Silver Falls Chapter of DeMolay from Silverton, with Master Counsellor Richard Johnson presenting her with a large bouquet of red roses. Dad Advisor of the group of boys, who wore beautiful robes, is Ed Hesler.

Miss Gould presented her installing officers with gifts of appreciation, also a gift to the DeMolay boys from the Assembly for their help. She introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Gould and young sister, Alice Ann, also her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wood of Depoe Bay.

A degree was put on by a group of Rainbow girls for the newly installed worthy advisor and a gift presented. A trio, made up of Gerry Hamblin, Carol Andreassen, and Jan Ross, sang "We Love You Truly."

The out-going worthy advisor, Gerry Hamblin, was then honored with a degree and gift from her officers of the past term of four months.

Several of the girls then put on a surprise degree honoring their Mother Advisor Fern Shuey, who was presented with a beautiful bouquet of red roses. Mrs. Shuey made the presentation of the "out-going" gift from the Assembly to Miss Hamblin. A trio of girls sang, "When It's Meeting Time for Rainbow."

The majority award which is presented either because of marriage or of reaching the age of 20, was conferred upon the Misses Vera Loucks and Lela Mel Kelly.

Among distinguished guests escorted to the East were Dorothea Scarth, Mother Advisor of Ramona Assembly at Silverton, who made several complimentary remarks about the work of the new Assembly in Mill City. Also seated in honorary places were the Worthy Matron and Patron of Marilyn Chapter of the Eastern Star, and Worshipful Master of Mill City lodge.

Installing ceremonies for Acacia Assembly of Rainbow for Girls in Stayton were held Monday evening, January 18, in Jefferson, by Miss Karen Kelly, who was installed at that time.

At the close of the evening light refreshments were served by the Advisory board.

Legion Auxiliary Meets at Rynearson Home at Gates

The Mill City American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Rynearson, Gates, Monday evening. District President Frances Grund of Monmouth and Department Community Service Chairman Eva Humphries of Stayton were present at the meeting.

Following the business meeting Evelyn Johnson put on a pantomime skit for the group and refreshments were served.

--Mill Ends--

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shuey were Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Rupp of Salem, former Mill City residents. The Ruppas are planning to move to Medford in the near future, and will rent their home in West Salem.

The intermediate group of Girl Scouts, which is composed of girls of junior high school age, is busy working in their proficiency badges. There are eight members in the group. Just completing their work in the second class category were Nancy Porter and Gloria Klecker, who will now begin majoring in first class work. Co-leaders of this worthwhile organization are Mrs. Howard Means and Mrs. Alfred Nesbitt. Weekly meetings are held on Monday, after school, in the high school recreation room.

An exhibition game of shuffleboard was played at Meander Inn Tuesday evening between the girls team from the Bridge Tavern at Mehama and the girls team of Meander Inn. Meander Inn won by a score of 131 to 70. Tuesday, the Meander Inn girls team will play against the Lake girls team at Detroit.

Mrs. H. E. Jull, assisted by Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson entertained at a fellowship coffee hour yesterday (Wednesday) morning. Guests present were: Mrs. Alvin Cooper, Mrs. Wm. Hunter, Debbie and Toby Hunter, Mrs. Fletchall, Jane, Deanne and Duane Fletchall, Mrs. E. K. Fish, Mrs. Ike Myers, Mrs. Elmer Shaw, Mrs. Glen Shelton, Mrs. William Misener, and Mrs. Lee Knowles.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett and daughter, Rosalie, motored to Sweet Home Sunday, where they were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnston. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Epps, former publishers of The Enterprise. The Epps had recently returned from a trip to Europe. The trip was sponsored by an appliance company. They stated it was a wonderful experience.

Residents on the Linn County side of Mill City who wish to register to vote in coming election may fill out the forms at the home of Raymond Roberts.

Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Tuesday from several months spent at Arlington, Va., with her son and daughter-in-law, Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. Gladys Trask of Fresno, Cal.
