MEHAMA

By Mrs. John Teeters
The Mehama Home Extension Unit met for their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Ray Roberts Friday, February 5. The meeting started at 10:30 with a demonstration on "Keeping Up to Date With Textiles," presented by county home extension agent, Pauline Schaplosky. A delicious buffet luncheon was served at noon by a committee composed by Mrs. Ted Pruitt, Mrs. Tilman Rains, Mrs. Perry Clippell and Mrs. Charles Boucha. The business meeting in the afternoon was conducted by the vice chairman, Mrs. Ray Roberts who also entertained with a few games and tricks. The next meeting will be held at the Dale Crandall home March 5 and the subject will be "Care of Walls, Woodwork and Floors." Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend these meetings. A baby sitter is provided. Mrs. Harold Longfellow, Mrs. Austin Longfellow and Mrs. Larry Prichard were hostesses for the meeting of the Women's club at the club house Tuesday evening, February 1. The Valentine motif was used in decorating the rooms and also in the refreshments served by the hostesses at the close of the evening. After the business meeting a social time was enjoyed by the 20 members and one visitor present. Visitors are always welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pyree of Pratum were visiting friends and former neighbors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Castle were called to Portland last week by the sudden death of Mr. Castle's brother, Jack. Jack Castle lived here several years ago.

Returning home Wednesday of last week were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Griffith, who have been visiting in Kansas and other places since Thanksgiving. They visited relatives in California before returning home.

The Ira Kirsch home was the scene of a large gathering Sunday evening honoring Pvt. Dale Kirsch who returned to Fort Belvoir, Va. the first of the week after spending his leave at the home of his parents here. After he returns to camp, Pvt. Kirsch will be assigned to overseas duty. Dale entered the services last June.

Mr. and Mrs. Janeway and family have moved here from Florence to make their home. Mrs. Janeway is a sister of Mrs. Orville Bilyeu.

Sunday dinner guests at the Jerry Coffman home were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wilson of Scio, who formerly resided here.

Word was received by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Russell this week from Mr. and Mrs. Louis Myers, who are vacationing at Sonora, California. They report good fishing in the bay down there.

The Fairview Cemetery association including women from both Gates and Mill City, will hold a food sale at the former Hinz Coffee shop Saturday from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. Lunch of coffee, sandwiches, sandwiches and salads will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill spent the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sven Eliassen of Albany. They returned home Sunday by way of Sweet Home where they called on Mr. and Mrs. David Epps in their new home on the South Santiam river. The Epps formerly owned a furniture store in Mill City.

LITTLE ILLS
MAKE BIG BILLS!

• True, that "little illnesses" you've been mentioning in an offhand way, may not seem to amount to much—just a few faint symptoms. But, neglected, these "little ills" can lead to big bills for doctors, medicines, etc; not to mention needless suffering and loss of precious time. Consult a Doctor now—you'll save by it in the end. And, of course, we hope you'll bring his prescription to us for careful compounding.

RELIABLE PRESCRIPTIONS

"a hale cobbler is a better man than a sick king"

THROUGH THE YEARS many wise men have emphasized the true richness of glowing, vibrant health. No one has summarized the almost universal recognition of the value of health better than Bickerstaff, who said, "A hale cobbler is a better man than a sick king."

The chief job of the physician and the pharmacist is to keep you well. To this end both are educated, equipped, and dedicated in purpose. As pharmacists, we are better prepared than ever before to serve the health needs of this community. We invite you to inspect our modern prescription laboratory.
