Spending Sunday afternoon with the John Plambecks was their son and family, Dr. and Mrs. Hans Plambeck and children, Janice and Douglas. Dr. Plambeck is connected with the Sociology department at Oregon State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dyhrman and two children were in Corvallis on Saturday for the funeral services of Mrs. O. E. Chaney, mother of Mrs. Dyhrman, who had been ill for some time. Mrs. Donald Sheythe furnished music for the services.

Young people of the Christian church held a farewell party for Bob Shelton Sunday evening, preceding the regular youth meeting. Present were Yvonne, Sybil and Lauren Dart, Rose Fleming, Elton and Eddie Gregory, Wilma and Ralph Jull, Beryl Mason, Vera Loucks, Ellen Shelton, Bill Shepherd and minister H. E. Jull. A gift of a New Testament was presented to the honor guest, who is being inducted into the army this week.

VALENTINE'S DAY, FEBRUARY 14

Delicate expression of your tenderest feelings

Sweetheart Cake . . .

Charm your Valentine—or your Valentine's Day guests with Sweetheart Cake. As tender as young love, it's heart-shaped—it's lavish with swirls of pink frosting—it's topped by a colorful cupid, symbolic of the day! It's a wonderful Valentine—or party table centerpiece. And it's delicious—with deep light layers of moist, white cake.
Order your Sweetheart Cake now! We'll bake it fresh and delicious with the same fine ingredients you would use—have it ready when you want it.

This is the same "Baked-for-you" cake Betty Crocker praised on her magazine of the air program.
