

--Mill Ends--

Mrs. Vern Clark, who has been ill and hospitalized for a time, is somewhat improved and has been able to return to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Delaney and four children of Hood River, visited during the weekend with Mrs. Delaney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis.

Mrs. Dale Bassett and young son from Glendale, California, are spending some time with her parents, the Otto Witts, as Mrs. Witt has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Toman, were in Salem Saturday evening where they attended a dance put on by the Cama dance club, of which they are members.

Ramage's

ADD THAT
Extra room
YOU NEED NOW!

We can help you with your plans to remodel or modernize your home... show you how it can be done easily and economically. You can depend on us for quality lumber and other building materials. Discuss your plans with us now.

SPECIAL
IXS cedar shiplap, No. 2 and better grade
$65 per M
This is tight knot stock, good for siding or garages, workshops, etc.

Kelly Lumber Sales
Authorized Shopsmith Dealer
Open On Saturdays
East City Limits Hiway 222
Phone 6803 Mill City

Auto Repair Work

ALL WORK GUARANTEED
Welding and Auto Parts
OPEN SEVEN DAYS A WEEK

Silver Saddle Garage

BILL GUIER, Proprietor
On old highway Phone 903
MILL CITY, OREGON

For Easter

Easter Cards
Easter Baskets
Easter Novelties
Easter Napkins
Easter Candy

"LITE-A-BUMPER" tape for cars and bikes
MILL CITY VARIETY
HUGH and ALICE WALKUP, Props.
MILL CITY, ORE.

Mrs. George Dickey began working at Hilltop Market Tuesday, taking the place of Mrs. W. J. Timm, who fell recently and injured her hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Swan and young son, of Portland, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Swan.

The Altar Society Baked Food Sale will be held Thursday, April 22 at the former Hinz cafe in Mill City. Coffee and sandwiches will be served beginning at 10:30. adv. 2t

There will be a meeting of the Santiam Memorial Hospital auxiliary at the Santiam Valley grange hall at Lyons this Thursday, at 2 p. m., and all persons interested are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Croan and family left Monday for an extended vacation trip to California and Oklahoma. Croan, who is power-house operator for the engineers, will be away three weeks.

The Mill City Girl Scout Troop 36 is holding a Court of Awards at the high school recreation rooms tonight (Thursday) at 7:30. The girls will serve refreshments. They have invited their sponsors, the Lions club auxiliary to attend.

Mrs. Roger Nelson, Mrs. A. E. Nesbitt, Mrs. Don Moffatt and Mrs. Kenneth Crosier motored to Salem Monday, where they attended a committee meeting on the coming PTA convention which is being held there this month.

Making an extended visit with the A. V. Morrisons is their eldest daughter, Mrs. Clifford Carter of LaGrande, whose husband passed away a number of weeks ago. Mr. Morrison is somewhat improved after his long illness of the past several months.

Spending several days with her parents, the Alfred Bolstads, has been Miss Fay Bolstad, their daughter, who attends high school in Tacoma. Mr. and Mrs. Bolstad returned her to the Washington city Wednesday of this week, planning to remain over Easter with Mrs. Bolstad's mother.

Miss Ardith Jones and Miss Joan Hoffman, students at the University of Oregon, spent the weekend at the Russell Hoffman's, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones, who had moved to Richland, Washington, will be leaving in the near future for North Dakota, where Mr. Jones will be located on another CBI project, the building of Garrison dam.

Clayton Baltimore of Redmond was in town last week for the purpose of moving his portable sawmill to Scio. He was assisted in the work by his brother-in-law, Gilbert Calavan of Scio, who had been in partnership with Baltimore for some time. The land on which the sawmill was located had previously been sold to Lee Logging Co.

The April meeting of Marilyn Chapter, No. 145, Order of the Eastern Star, was held Monday evening. Following the short business meeting, refreshments were served by a committee made up of members from Idanha and Detroit. Heading the committee was Mabel Parker, worthy matron, assisted by Doris Haseman, Mary Gulliford, and Florence Harris. Special visitors from Salem attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walworth, who formerly attended here. Mr. Walworth stated they would soon be locating near Ashland, where he will be connected with the new Methodist boys camp.

A teenage dance will be held at the Legion hall here this Friday evening. Music will be furnished by Jim Iholts and Jack Lake. Teenagers in this area are invited to attend.

Word has been received from Bob Baltimore and Daryl Farmer, who left recently for Alaska where they will be employed packing supplies for big game hunters. Young Farmer was in Alaska last summer doing the same work, and cooking for members of the pack trains. Baltimore was a student at Willamette University until last term.

Members of the Gaynights square dance club met at the Orville Downing place west of town Saturday night. At the business meeting plans for an outing at the coast were discussed. Nothing definite was done at the meeting, however. All those interested in square and folk dancing are invited to come to the meetings which are held the second and fourth Saturday of each month.

A wedding of interest Saturday evening, April 17, in the First Methodist church of Salem, will be that of Miss Marilyn Mull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Mull of Independence, and Ensign James Cooke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cooke of Mill City. Ensign Cooke has been stationed in Florida with the Navy Air Force for some time, and is driving out to the west coast this week, expected to arrive home by Friday.

Forty-one members attended the regular meeting of the Santiam Rebekahs at the lodge hall Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Eva Duffy, noble grand, presiding over the business session. A lengthy initiatory practice was held, as the officers will initiate some candidates next month.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served. Listed on the refreshment committee were Rosa Roten, Minnie Roten, Louise Wrigglesworth, and Maude Davis. Mrs. Davis was unable to be present, as her husband, Ed Davis of Gates, has been hospitalized for some time following surgery. During the evening, the charter was draped in honor of Ed Haynes, long-time member, who passed away recently.

MEHAMA

By Mrs. John Teeters

Mrs. Harry Monroe, Mrs. Ira Kirsch and Mrs. Robert Draper were hostesses for the meeting of the Mehama Women's Club at the clubhouse Tuesday evening, April 6. The room was decorated with daffodils and forsythia and the long table had a centerpiece of white stocks and daffodils. The entertainment for the evening was furnished by a group of six girl scouts under the direction of Mrs. Ercill Wilson. The girls led the group in an impressive flag salute and gave several musical numbers. Mrs. Harold Longfellow won the prize in the gift drawing. About 30 ladies were present including several visitors. A nomination committee composed of Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. Ira Kirsch and Mrs. Robert Draper was appointed and will report at the next meeting. The usual plea for more rummage for the rummage store was voiced by the committee in charge. Everyone is invited to visit the new store which is next door to the old location. The store is open every Tuesday from 10 to 4.

The Ladies Aid held their regular cleaning day at the church Thursday with nine ladies present. The potluck dinner at noon was enjoyed by several men who were working on the church. A group of the ladies had also met at the church the Monday before to sew on the robes worn by the choir for the first time Sunday. It has been tentatively decided that the dinner planned for the 22nd of April will be postponed until sometime the forepart of May.

The Mehama local of the Farmers Union met at the Women's Clubhouse Friday evening, April 9. Only 13 members were present but an enjoyable time was had by all. After the business meeting and period of discussion, Jerry Coffman led the group in a series of contests. The bubble gum contest was won by Gene Coles as he was the only one present able to blow bubbles with his gum. The evening was brought to a close with the serving of refreshments by the ladies.

At the meeting of the hot lunch club at the schoolhouse Wednesday evening, April 7, it was decided to have a mother's patrol for the highway crossing below the schoolhouse during the construction. The mothers to take turns between 8:30 and 9 a. m. The teachers felt they could take care of it in the evening after school. Mrs. Donald Teeters was appointed chairman of the committee to see that a mother was on duty every morning. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Dale Champ, Mrs. "Bud" Davenport, Mrs. G. V. Christensen, Mrs. Eugene Coles, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Mrs. Kate Patton and daughter, Mrs. Vala Pullen from Portland visited Saturday at the Ed Taylor, Elmer Taylor and Mabel Patton homes.

Sunday visitors at the B. L. Kirsch home were Mr. and Mrs. Laurner and two daughters from Dayton and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Weldon of Salem. Weekend guests at the Robert Draper home were Mrs. Mable Allen and the Alvin Beunemann family of Portland.

Lou Pooler, who strained his back quite badly some time ago while at work at the Philippi Tire Service is somewhat improved but still unable to return to work.

Bridal Shower Held For Miss Vera Loucks

Miss Vera Loucks, who will become the bride of Robert Shelton at a May wedding, was honored with a bridal shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Cooke, with Miss Donna Cooke, Miss Beryl Mason, and Miss Wilma Jull sharing hostess honors.

Entertainment for the afternoon consisted of several games, prizes being won by Mrs. Earl Loucks, Miss Ardith Jones, and Miss Ellen Shelton. Following opening of the many lovely gifts, refreshments were served, with a color scheme of yellow and green being used.

Attending the shower were the Misses Vera, Willa, and Roberta Loucks, Mrs. Earl Loucks, Mrs. Glen Shelton, Miss Ellen Shelton, Miss Ardith Jones, Mrs. Franklin McDowell, Mrs. Harold Mason, Miss Beryl Mason, the Misses Donna and Carol Cooke, and Mrs. Ed Cooke. Others sending gifts were Mrs. Hugh Jull, Miss Wilma Jull, who was ill, Miss Betty Lou Cree, Mrs. William McClintock, and Miss Lela Kelly.

STORK CLUB

Births Recorded at Santiam Memorial
To Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Juhnke, Stayton, Oregon, a baby boy on April 2, at Santiam Memorial Hospital.
To Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ivan Corliss, Scio, Oregon, a baby boy on April 2, at Santiam Memorial Hospital.
To Mr. and Mrs. William Floyd Kaser, of Silverton, Ore., a baby girl of April 3 at Santiam Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. R. C. Haseman of Idanha gave a family get-together at the D. B. Hill home Saturday evening, preparatory to the Hills leaving Monday for a two-months' European trip. Mrs. Haseman and Mrs. Charles Kelly drove them to Portland Monday afternoon to board their train for New York.

Recent dinner parties honoring the Hills were given by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crosier, and by Mrs. W. W. Allen, assisted by Mrs. Vernon Todd. A shower honored Mrs. Hill Sunday morning, before church services, by the Presbyterian choir members. The Hills were dinner guests of Mrs. J. F. Potter Sunday afternoon.

Attending the Saturday evening affair, at which a large cake decorated with a steamship was featured, were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hill, Mrs. J. F. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly and Johnny, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Monroe and little son, Michael of Idanha, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill, the guests of honor and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Haseman.

Quality Job Printing at
Mill City Enterprise

THE COMMERCIAL BOOK STORE

SALEM

Has Everything for Your

OFFICE NEEDS

Furniture and Bookkeeping Supplies

141 N. Commercial Street

Phone 3-4534

GET YOUR LAWN AND GARDEN

FERTILIZER

From . Us . Now

We handle the tried and tested

Elephant Brand

Ammonium Phosphate-Sulphate

16-20-0

We carry plenty on hand for your needs

Hirte Feed Store

MILL CITY, OREGON

1000 MILE JOB

Let specialists do that vital every-1000 mile lubrication job! Our expert mechanics have the tools and training to do is speedily, efficiently... save you time and money!

Come in today... and every 1000 miles!

Pink Mason's Shell Service
MILL CITY, OREGON

Specials for Friday and Saturday

APRIL 16 and 17

Easter Feaster Foods

HAM

DENCO, CASCADE SWIFT'S PREMIUM
Buy yours here.
SWIFT'S PREMIUM OVEN READY TURKEYS

Get your supply of Eggs for coloring from us

Paas Egg Dye All colors Pkg. 10c
Butter FRESH CHURNED CREAMERY Per Pound 69c

Shortening Swift's Jewel 3 lb. tin 79c
Cake Mix 3 Pkgs. .98

Chocolate Chips Nestle's 2 pks 49c
CANNED SOUP

Juice Oranges 3 doz 69c
Campbell's 6 cans $1
Meat Base
Vegetable Base 8 Cans $1

Mayonnaise 69c
KRAFT Quart Jar
Fisher's Two Cereal Bowls Free
FLOUR 10 lbs 99c

We will have them At Our Store This Weekend

Open Daily 8:00 A. M. to 7:00 P. M. Closed Sundays and Holidays

HILL TOP MARKET
Telephone 2744 Mill City, Oregon.