A farewell dinner was given by the Forest Service Friday evening at Marion Fork lodge, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, who are moving to Molalla, where he will assume new duties with the Clackamas Fire Patrol association. Mr. Moore has been employed by the Detroit Forest Service for the past two years.

Those attending were the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Starr Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Fagan, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, Martin McCann and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Moore. Ray Wallace underwent surgery Monday morning at Salem Memorial hospital, for malignancy of the lip. Weekend guests at the Joe Leis Lake Shore cabins were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conlon of Pasco, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kellers of Silverton, who are still enjoying fishing here. Taking residence for the summer at the Cabins will be, Don Wickersham and wife, Bud Rutherford and wife from Forest Grove.

Eight second graders from the Detroit school, received the first polio immunization shots on Thursday of last week, at Stayton. Each will receive another shot May 6 and the final shot will be given June 3.

Approximately 100 members of the Marion County Women's Federation met in the auditorium of the Detroit school Friday, April 30. One of the main guest speakers was Maurine Neuberger, of Portland, State Representative of Multnomah county. The meeting adjourned at 3:30 and the group retired to the school cafeteria where they were luncheon guests of the Detroit civic club. Stage decorations were furnished by the Raleigh Harold Florists of Stayton. Marion Kite was winner of the weekend trout derby, sponsored by Earl Layman and Art Hansen, for the longest trout caught in Detroit Lake, or its tributaries. The trout measured 15 inches. Mrs. Melba Dallaire of Idanha moved to Portland, where she will make her home with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Heft.

Old man winter was still getting in some low punches last week. Friday morning most of us were startled to find a slight trace of snow on the ground. It snowed intermittently most of the morning, melting as fast as it came down.

Friday night brought a heavy frost doing some damage to plant life. Saturday was a beautiful day to the fisherman's delight. This area was crowded with eager fishermen.

Detroit Lake Saturday and Sunday looked like the Navy had moved in. The boats, all sizes and colors, made a beautiful picture on the lake. The tributaries of the lake were also crowded with fishermen.

Fishermen visitors at the Harold Champion home on Tuesday were Mrs. Champion's nephew and wife, the Bill Frys of Salem.

Christine Nyberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nyberg, of Idanha, is having a bout with the three-day measles.
