Loucks-Shelton Wedding Held

The wedding of Vera Loucks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Loucks, and Robert Shelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shelton, took place at the First Christian church on Saturday evening, May 15, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Thomas H. Shelton, brother of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony, and Minister Hugh Jull, performed the home dedication service for the couple. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace over white taffeta, with long sleeves, pointed at the wrist, a calla lily neck-line, with the skirt fashioned of lace and pleated tulle. The fingertip veil extended from a bonnet-shaped lace Juliet cap with a row of orange blossoms at the back, worn by the bride's mother 25 years ago. Her bouquet was of white lilies-of-the-valley, centered with a white orchid with a lavender throat.

Maid of honor was Miss Donna Cooke, wearing a ballerina length dress of baby blue imported embroidered organdie over blue taffeta with matching taffeta sash and headband. She carried a basket of yellow daisies.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Willa and Roberta Loucks, sisters of the bride, and Miss Ellen Shelton, sister of the groom, all of whom wore dresses identical to that of the maid-of-honor, except that their sashes and headbands were of matching organdie. They also carried the yellow daisies.

Serving as flower girls were Miss Glenda Miller and Miss Sharon Bassett, nieces of the groom. They were dressed identically.

Harold Park was best man, with ushers being Ben Loucks, brother of the bride, Francis Clark and Gary Peterson.

Candlelighters were Miss Wilma Jull and Miss Beryl Mason, who wore ballerina-length dresses of yellow dotted Swiss over yellow taffeta, with matching headbands.

The church was effectively decorated with baskets of dogwood, white lilies, and flowers were in the windows.

Soloist for the impressive ceremony was Kirk Wirick of Roseburg, who sang "Because," "Through the Years," and "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson.

Mrs. Loucks, the mother of the bride, wore a navy sheer crepe with pink and navy accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Shelton, mother of the groom, wore navy lace over pink with navy and white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

At the reception in the church parlors, Mrs. Ernest Miller, sister of the groom cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Art Bassett, another sister, and Mrs. Tomas Shelton, sister-in-law.

Mrs. John Wolfe, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Harold McCollister, cousin of the bride, served the punch. Paul Loucks, brother of the bride passed the groom's cake.

Mrs. Hugh Jull was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs. E. K. Fish, Mrs. William Misner, Mrs. Harold Mason, Mrs. Ike Myers and Mrs. Frank Caraway. The guest book was in charge of Miss Dolores Poole.

The Misses Kay and Priscilla Miller, nieces of the groom, accepted gifts at the door, with the Misses Alona Daly, Ardith Jones, Yvonne Dart, and Mrs. Marvin Bibler in charge of the gift table.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Shelton left for a short honeymoon at the beach. The groom, who is in the U. S. Army, will soon report for duty at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where he will receive eight weeks of radio training. The bride will continue working at the State Tax Commission in Salem, and will join him when he is stationed permanently.

For going away, the bride wore a white linen suit with lavender accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Wirick of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McQueen of Sweet Home, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Williamson of Lebanon, Mrs. and Mrs. Ernest Miller and family of Prineville, Miss Marian McDonald of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf of Oswego, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCollister of Portland.

From Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peterson, Mrs. C. J. Dahlien, Gary Peterson, Orville Carroll, Craig Eby, Miss Beth Denton, Miss Dorothy Rose, Miss Darlene Staab, Mrs. Bess Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerper and Donnie, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, George Ditto, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Valencourt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hugh, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ruhl.

Rainbow Girls Honor Mothers Wednesday Night

Members of Marilyn Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, honored their mothers at a 7 o'clock "dessert" at the lodge hall Wednesday evening, preceding the regular meeting. Over 50 mothers and girls attended.

The program in the dining room included: Welcome, Judy Haseman; accordion numbers, Barbara Podrabsky; clarinet numbers, Rosalie Bassett, accompanied by Mrs. Delos Hoeye; and a Mother's Day degree, honoring Mrs. Wm. B. Shuey, the mother advisor, who was presented with a silk house coat.

At the meeting in the lodge room, Penny Gould, worthy advisor; Sherry Hansen, Charity; Joyce Watkins, Hope; and Frances Ward, Faith. Others were to be appointed.

At the close of the evening, refreshments were served by the girls and their Mother advisor.
