Installation ceremonies will be held Sunday, June 6th, at 2 p.m. at the Detroit school auditorium for officers of the FOE Auxiliary Aerie 2745.

Officiating at the ceremonies will be the officers and drill team of the FOE Auxiliary of the Albany Aerie.

All officers will be in formal dress, and ceremonies are open to the public. A luncheon will be served to members and their families. Officers nominated are as follows: Oskie Nyberg, president; Helen Bryant, vice president; Margaret Howland, junior past madam president; Boots Champion, chaplain; Irene Stout secretary; Dollie Kite, treasurer; Melba Harlan, outside guard; Fay Cooper, inside guard; Tude Russell, trustee; Nickey Clester, trustee.

The Pete Eliason Logging Co., went on "Hoot Owl" the last of the week. Low humidity in the area is still halting a full day's work.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Stuber of Salem, enjoyed fishing in the area over the weekend.

Weekend visitors at the Harold Champion home were Mrs. Emma Ramage and children, Joan and Webb and Evalyne Czarnetzki of Salem.

The North Santiam Chamber of Commerce met at the Detroit school Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served by the Detroit Civic club.

Don't forget the rummage sale today (Thursday) and Friday at the FOE hall in Detroit. Hours 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Starr Reed and family will move to Albany or Lebanon the 1st of June, where Mr. Reed will be employed at the M&M Co., at Albany. Mr. Reed has been employed by the Forest Service at Detroit for about two years.

A vote of thanks is extended to Lloyd Ketchum for services rendered Saturday at the Detroit Church of Christ.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mattoon on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week were Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Montgomery of Philomath.
